Dear Mr. Weisberg -

You no doubt are up on these developments.
There have been several contradictory articles along these same lines, in the last several days. So just to let you know I'm still with you, in thought & deed, I took this excuse to keep our lines open.

I am glad to see you have taken a stand as a writer & a fine person against the war. I was not surprised however, as your taking any other stand wouldnt make much sense.

As the days, weeks & months go on - I am becoming convinced beyond reasonable doubt of a strong connection between the murder of our President

2/11 The murder of millions of the wrong type color, status etc over the decades in general & the ^{whole} ~~whole~~ ^{thousands} in Vietnam Today or particular.

I feel the only reason we didn't kill more was because we needed 'strong ' backs - i.e. 'cheap labor' - This we no longer need -

So - we know - will ^{ever} it end? The underdog will fight & his time - &
"right" will not be "right" - even figuratively speaking - & no one will ^{EVEN} ~~even~~ be around to say "I told you so."

If they will start a war to stop Danison - one man - how can he win - we win - anybody win?

Best Wishes

P.S. I have just finished Sylvia Meagher's (one) book - she has really whittled my appetite for her Index of the (26) Vols & for the (26) Vols themselves. Fred almost got some for my Birthday.
But, at the last minute we needed the money too badly for something else. It really shook me up - as I'm so afraid - they will go out of print before I can get them. Maybe someone bought some up & is holding them - just in case they are again the great! demand & short supply?

Sincerely
Lois / Jarrett
