FRIPAYS JULY 28, 1967 HIE DAILY OF LAHOMA

ENID MAN'S VERSION

Warren Report Disputed

assassination of President John F. Kennedy Thursday disputed the Warren Report.

"It just didn't happen that way," said James Hicks, formerly of Dallas. He said he heard four shots, one of which went over his head from a point removed from was shot." the Texas Book Depository where the Warren Report stationed.

Hicks said he told District Attorney Jim Garrison what he saw and heard at the asit sassination scene during a visit to New Orleans last weekend.

me when Garrison called me the assassination, including fact he was a witness. and asked me to fly down," was, sure, but I never dreamed he had ever heard g- of me."

Enid man who witnessed the port which showed Hicks his regular duties during the standing on a grassy area day and tackles the Kennedy book depository.

across the street from the "I had read the report,"

Hicks said, "but I never noticed my picture in it. I was standing within 100 yards of the president's car when he

During a 12-hour interview a witness if a trial is held. with Garrison, Hicks said he says Lee Harvey Oswald was picked six Cubans from 150 photos shown him and identified them as men he had known in Dallas. Hicks moved to Enid last March and is an instrument technician for Serv-Air, Inc., at Vance Air Force Base.

Hicks said he told Garrison "It scared the devil out of everything he could recall of though he has not hidden the seeing a man crouched in an Hicks said. "I knew who he automobile trunk before the shooting.

The Enid man characterized Garrison as "one of the Hicks said Garrison traced most sincere and dedicated

By the State Staff him down through a picture men I have ever met." He ENID — A 28-year-old included in the Warren Resaid the prosecutor handles investigation at 5 p.m., often working into the morning. .

"He questioned me until 12:30 one morning," Hicks said.

Hicks said he expects to be recalled to New Orleans for further interviews and to be Hicks said the interview convinced him Garrison has strong evidence more than one man was involved in the assassination.

The Enid man said he was not questioned by investigators immediately after the shooting and was not called by the Warren Commission, SOON. Breakers Cit

Comparthiste = OKLAHOMA CITY TIMES