

jet was

other Go To Jordan

Los Angeles (AP)—The mother of convicted assassin Sirhan B. Sirhan booked passage today to Amman, Jordan, although Palestinian guerrillas deny that they have demanded the release of her son as one provision for the return of two hijacked jetliners with 180 passengers.

A Trans World Airline spokesman said Mary Sirhan and three other persons, including attorney Luke McKissack, made reservations for a flight to New York city this morning with a final destination of Amman.

A top spokesman for the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine said in Beirut that the release of Sirhan, an Arab immigrant convicted of the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy in 1968, was one condition for the release of the planes and passengers.

Later Denied

Later the PFLP officially denied that Sirhan's release was one of its demands.

"I am concerned about the life of every human being, whether it is my son or those people—they are the same to me," Mrs. Sirhan told a news conference before learning of the official denial.

"People have to find a way to make peace in the world," she added. "If this country is able to send a man to the moon they should be capable of making peace."

Leaves In Tears

Mrs. Sirhan was escorted from the news conference in tears before being told of the denial. She was unavailable for comment later.

McKissack said one of his associates in the Sirhan case, George Shibley, flew to Beirut at first report of the demand for Sirhan's release.

Sirhan, who said at his trial that he acted on behalf of displaced Palestinians, has expressed belief that he would be freed through some sort of prisoner exchange.

Arab Raps Guards For Foiling Hijack

Beirut, Lebanon (AP)—A Palestinian guerrilla spokesman protested Monday the presence of armed guards on Israel's El Al airline flights as "a gross violation of international law." The spokesman, speaking over Damascus radio in Syria, said the failure of a guerrilla attempt to hijack an El Al airliner near London Sunday was due to this "outrageous Israeli violation."