

WILLIAM BRADFORD HINE

HARTSELLE, ALABAMA

September 15, 1970

Dear Mr. Weisler:

My favorite and most treasured possession. Or it will be as good as it can be collected again. I have given it to Arthur Hanes Junior, and I am in the process of delivering it to him.

I no longer know what it is my possession when Arthur Hanes was sent away a bundle of it. He is to deliver it to you, and when this book is completed, I expect to see it in your hands.

I also passed some of it to George McMillan, who is writing a book for Little Brown. I believe he expects to finish it in the next few weeks and return the material, not to me, but to you.

Finally, my lawyer in Nashville, John Becker, still has some of it because he has had it in some litigation. I expect to see it in your hands, in return for the material to him.

I hope that you will write to Mr. Hanes Junior, the President of the Alabama Historical Society, and let you know what you can do to help him in his work and of it. I have always been interested in it, by the Hanes family.

Best wishes,

Bill Hane
