Dear Mr. Izzard,

I am sorry that for several reasons it is not possible for me to provide copies of the unpublished manuscripts now. One is that they are rough drafts intended as a record for history and for which permissions to use what is used has not been sought, that being beyond my capability if I am to continue with all the illnesses I am lucky to be surviving, to add to this record for history. Another is that it is physically beyond my capability at my age and in the state of my health.

As you can see, a computer is not for me! I have enough trouble typing! But I'm glad those who from your mention of them I regard as other than subject-matter experts are quoting my work.

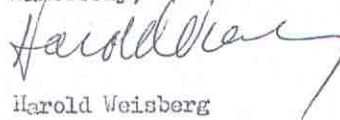

What the La Fontaines published is not even good fiction, although it is all made up. And in their book they were not able to quote accurately. Even honestly.

I did not write any book about the assassination of Robert Kennedy or about him.

I used what I think is what you refer to in Post Mortem, toward the end of it.

It had to do with Los Angeles arranging, without the presence of Sirhan's counsel, to keep the records unavailable in the name of making them available and with the destruction of the second pistol.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Harold/Lillian,

Thankyou for your letter dated 02/07/97.

I wished to reply sooner but I have just moved into a new house.

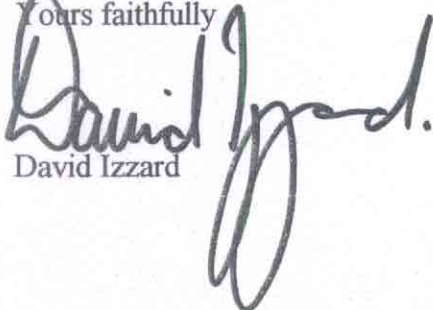

In your letter you mentioned that you have unpublished manuscripts. I would love to purchase a copy of these works before they go to the scholars at Hood College. Please advise if I may so.

Also you maybe interested to know that your work is being quoted on the internet. There are quite a few websites on the JFK assassination. I've down loaded articles from Jimmy Page, Lisa Pease and Ray & Mary La Fontaine that quote you and your work. You can also down load pages of the Warren Commission direct from the Nation Archives website, which I have done with the testimony of Comdr James J Humes & Governor Connally to read with your "Whitewash" books.

Harold is it true that you wrote a book about Robert Kennedy in 1969 called " Coup D'Etat II" ? If so, is it possible to get a copy?

I continue to read and look forward to your reply.

Yours faithfully

David Izzard
