

The amount of <sup>dom intel.</sup> funds and money spent on Special Services operations were not justified by the law enforcement function it served" all undesignated 50 of N.Y. State assembly Special Task Force Report on State Police Non-Criminal Files 9/77 (not on law enforcement, only dom. intel.
over

FBI ~~central~~ <sup>State Offices</sup> ~~new~~
FENSTERWALD AND OHLHAUSEN

State Police info 910 Sixteenth Street, N.W. W.
Telephone 202

" on an attempt to form an about ion action group." So the State Police noted " The first meeting was attended and names of those present were noted but the group never materialized" p. 16

This after finding that (58)
"The procedure by which The State Police purged the Special Services files makes retrieval of specific files virtually impossible." This also "made access to the file collection of the past virtually impossible" in the case of the (Note could not check dissemination, as to FBI, in most cases)

"... not only most of the non-organizational groups & individuals by inspection of telephone, bank & credit records; conducting mail wires; obtaining membership or distributors list;"
and by use of informants, §§ 54-60 all by illegal acts

910 State Street, N.Y. City
Telephone 202

FENSTERWALD AND OHLHAUSEN

Law Offices