

RECORDED
TAPER

8/24/70

Mr. Michael H. Laird
Deputy Attorney General
Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Laird:

Your Department has engaged in a systematic effort to violate the clear intent of Congress and the law on "Freedom of Information" to the point that inquiries properly made are ignored. Speaking of you first it is my right and your obligation to respond to has been converted into a facility, even to simple a request for documents you require the citizens to use the law to blatantly ignored. Moreover, when I asked for copies of your instructions the day you as the different offices of your Department, not only was I not given copy, but in the proper office they even declined to tell my name and address so they could not issue instructions to me. I have, in the past, addressed a number of requests to the Attorney General. As one, or at the occasion, made response. A memorandum of your office that when my requests were rejected, as I anticipated they would be, the second indication this is systematic was not ignored. It is in the name of the Attorney General so that the assigned mechanism for delaying us would not be put into play again. In every case, this has not been done. I have twice then addressed appeals from拒绝 to the Attorney General only to have them also ignored. I regard this record or one in which your Department has effectively surrendered my rights to insist upon compliance with those rules you apply only to Congress my proper requests and, in the event it becomes necessary, am prepared to test this in court.

I would prefer that this not become necessary, that you change your ways, start making response, eliminate the deception and falsehood from the start, recognizing that Congress passes laws and Presidents sign them so that they will be obeyed, most of all by your Department in whose care the stability and integrity of the law is expected. P.S. the Department from which we have been hearing so much about what it calls "law and order". Like me, I suggest that should begin at home.

Herewith I enclose three completed W-110 forms, in each of these cases my most recent requests have been made some time ago. In not one of them has there been response.

Two of them are conveniently flagrant, and I single them out for explanation. By first request for the spectrography analysis of the bullet, fragments of bullet and objects said to have been struck by either when the President was assassinated and Governor Connally injured is dated 16 May 1968. There has never been response to it or its subsequent repetition. I addressed a request for this same public, non-classified information to the Attorney General 40 days ago. My first request for your report on the documents relating to the last filled form of the W-110 was made under the previous administration, and my most recent, still unanswered, was addressed to your office two weeks ago.

Because the record does not encourage belief you will provide just a week's time frame to the court, I feel it would be unwise for me to disclose everything - even less because I went voluntary compliance with the law and because despite your best contrary efforts, DA do not want to have this result in underestimation for you or the government. I do suggest some of them.

With regard to the cryptographic analysis, if you are not aware of it, nor when having been in your present position, I think you should know that if it does not agree in the most minute detail with the interpretation put upon it by the Warren Commission, their Report is a fiction. It was, in my view I do not explain, "considered by" that Commission. Those words are from the executive order of the Attorney General of October 31, 1964. Moreover, it was, to all practical purposes, made public and published in different form, respectively, by the Commission. Most recently, this was done by former Dallas Chief of Police James Curley, in a book bearing his name. When I asked for it at the National Archives, in person, the day this executive order was reported in the press, in my presence a representative of your Department told the National Archives it had been transferred there pursuant to this order. When we checked the file in citizen, we found it was but a photocopy. To the best of my knowledge, there has been no response to the report made to him that this was not the analysis itself. This analysis involved no secret processes, no information whose identities need be hidden, or definitions of the innocent, and does not in any way fall under the right to withhold embodied in any of the guidelines for withholdings.

Your Department, through Mr. Vinton, told me the various documents relating to David Ferrie were being reviewed with the intent of seeing what they might be made available. I never heard further from him. The National Archives told me it had no knowledge of any such review. Obviously, it is impossible for me to provide you with an identification of each and every such suppressed document, but to the degree I can, it is already in your files. In fairness to you, for I do not seek scandal but I do seek information I believe is properly mine, I want you to know that I have some of what is held to be withheld and it cannot possibly be withheld properly. As I have already explained, what might tend to reflect upon the innocent has already been made public, either extensively, by the men involved and by their attorney, in a book and its compilation. Ferrie himself is dead, was unmarried, and all sexual tastes are public knowledge in a variety of ways, including but not limited to public reporting of criminal charges against him for them and in his demonstrating of those charges and his subsequent loss of employment because of them.

With regard to the photograph identified as FBI Exhibit 60, requested in my letter of April 24, 1970, addressed to the Attorney General, I provide this information and request:

This is a picture of resident Kennedy's shirt. The shirt itself is withheld from examination and study and any taking of pictures of it is prohibited on the seemingly proper ground that neither the government nor his estate want any unidentified or sensational use of it. I have explained this thoroughly with the National Archives and the representative of the estate, verbally and in extensive correspondence. However, there is no use to make the available pictures less than useful in any other nature, for they may contain but his blood. This is not what I want to study or, perhaps, to meet any chief purpose in study.

FBI Exhibit 20 is available at the National Archives and it has been published by the Warren Commission and by others. However, someone in your Department has gone to such trouble to see to it that the photograph at the National Archives is entirely useless for any serious study or to assure that it can be used only for an other than unclassified or sensational purposes. Instead of a photographic print there is a photograph of the printed page. But FBI Exhibit 20 is not lithographic but is photographic in nature. With the screen built-in for printing, any enlargement is effectively precluded. My interest is the only non-sensational one. It is restricted to the task of the shirt through which a bullet is alleged to have passed. I do not, really, want the entire picture, and I would much prefer the largest clear enlargement you can have made of just this very small area of the shirt. My purpose is as simple as it is obvious. It is entirely restricted to a study of the damage to the shirt by the alleged bullet. I would much prefer any enlargement of this very small area of the shirt, which would eliminate all the gore, to a standard 8x10 glossy print of the exhibit itself. If you will not do this, as I hope you will, then I will accept the clearest possible photograph of the original negative of FBI Exhibit 20. However, because I am confident the Department would prefer an suggestion that it is withholding evidence relating to the murder of a President, I do hope you will provide me with the enlargement instead, showing only the damage. It will be obvious, I hope, that there is no unclassified use of such an enlargement of the original negative short of secretly possible, even if I were intending to publish it, which I am not.

The law, as you know better than I, imposes no burden upon me to make any explanation of what I seek under it. I hope you will understand that I have taken this time, some to this trouble, in a sincere effort to put you in a position to understand that my purposes are serious, scrupulously, proper and entirely within the intent of Congress and covered by the law. If you will reflect but a moment, perhaps you will also understand that, at possible cost to myself, I have sought to put you in a position to save yourself and the Department embarrassment if you do as you have in the past.

On the other hand, I will no longer accept the standard Departmental whipping from pillar to post. One of those moments to which your Department has never responded is four years old. The moment embodied in my Civil Action 712-70 was a year old at the time you responded to the perfectly proper request but only after I filed the action and you could no longer delay trial. If I have not heard from you within two weeks that you will comply with these demands, or if I get a projection in any form other than that of the Attorney General, I will proceed with further civil actions. I would much prefer to avoid this. Most sincerely,
I hope you would also,

Sincerely,

Arnold Weisberg
