Dear both,

Knowing how overworked you both are I would not ask this if it were not important. If you don't have time to write a response, perhaps when you are just sitting and resting you can tape what I'll would transcribe.

What I'm asking is your recollection of the beginnings of Garrison's involvement in what we later learned was the fake book, "Farewell A^m/erica." Particularly that he first let us know that it was the KGB that was going to provide secret information on the JFK assassination and that when this was talked about hush-hush by those connected with Jim reference was to "the San Diego Radio Station" that all understood had the call letters KGB. If you can remember anything about the involvement of others out there when you were at KHJ, it can be helpful, especially the Ramparts people and the character who used the ~~name~~ name "Jim Rose." If you remember the day he turned up at your office with that collection of syringes he claimed to have retrieved from the garbage at an estate in that area, that also would be helpful.

Anything that Rose, who was Turner's boy, said that you can recall could be worthwhile.

Or Steve Jaffe. By the way, if you know, is the p.r. woman Andrea Jaffe related to him?

From a story I saw she is Oliver Stone's flack. Or one of them.

I don't want to jog your memory on it because if you have any recollection I want it to be independent but when Rose turned up with those syringes he told us his purpose in seeking that "evidence" for Turner. If you have any recollection, that could be useful.

Also anything you may remember that he said about having had a CIA connection, or about his trip to Mexico to pick up the promised KGB info. for Garrison.

Or other names he used, real or otherwise.

Or if he was working for Turner, Ramparts or both.

As you can see, I'm trying to avoid coloring your recollection after all these years, trying to avoid any possibility of feedback.

My best recollection of when this was is that it was late-October or very early November, 1968. I was out there, in LA, went to San Diego for a couple of days, returned to LA, was staying with "Charlie Brown" and you drove me to the airport on election day. I do not recall whether it was before or after I went to SD.

I think but I'm not sure that Steve Burton, then a kid, was driving me around in LA. He had an old Mercedes his father gave him when the father got a new one.

I also asked "Rose" about a picture taken at ^(p)g-Name Key, if that jogs your memory.

Hope all is going as well as it can with you personally and with the sale of the station. Our best,
