Armco Probers Want Kleindienst Testimony

A congressional subcommit-tained showing that Kashiwa Richard G. Kleindienst and to discuss the case with two White House side Pater Fluid Flanigan aides. White House aide Peter Flanigan to testify next week on the White House, Reuss said, the White House role in an after William C. Verity, presianti-pollution court case dent of Armco, wrote to Presiagainst Armco Steel Co.

Wis.), chairman of the House the firms operations. Government Operations Subcommittee, charged earlier tice Department asked the that the White House inter-court to reduce its original orceded to win modification of a der and permit limited dumpfederal court order that ing, Reuss said. Armeo stop dumping toxic matter into the Houston ship judicial process and the fight memorandum was later ob- Thursday.

tee wants Attorney General instructed one of his assistants Kashiwa was contacted by dent Nixon protesting that the Rep. Henry S. Reuss (D- court order would endanger

Shortly afterward, the Jus-

"Both the integrity of the against environmental pollu-A former assistant attorney tion will be impaired if politigeneral, Shiro Kashiwa, now a cal influence is used to modify judge on the U.S. Court of court decrees ordering pollu-Claims, has testified that the ters to stop discharging toxic White House did not ask him to seek modification of the nouncing the start of his subcourt order. But Reuss said a committee's hearings next