Dear Jim,

2/7/78

If and when you read the Freep special JFK edition that Lane took over from AIB I think it would be a good idea to make a record of each use of the uncredited work of others. It has to be extensive and ^{lynt} can afford to pay for this is he can afford lane at all.

Some men pave the road to heaven with strange bricks.

By a ^R cabon I'm asking Dave and Howard to do the same thing.

^{Even} ^Folicoff is will to join in an effort caste ^{ane} from the critical community, as he said to me a few minutes ago.

I have a copy I've not had time to read.

It will be cheaper to buy a copy from Freep than for me to xerox is, if anyone does not have it. Price $1.50. So ^{lynt} hopes for some banknote paving, too.

I gather there is to be another one soon and that Lane is working on it.

That, I would suppose, consists largely of telling others to do the work so he can ^{rewrites} his own ^{herpism} into it.

If I forget to tell you I have a medical appointment in DCbfor 10 a.m. 2/15, this coming Wednesday, week from tomorrow.

Best,
