Dear Carol, 8/18/79

In the few minutes before today's broadcast of the Jimmy hearing begins I am not writing you an I-told-you-so letter, although by now I am sure you are aware, if you caught the broadcast, that I did tell you all in avdance, including Jimmy, exactly what would happen.

Rather do I hope to be able to get through to some of you, despite all the unsuccessful efforts of the past. Not you personally, because I have no reason to believe that you know anything or can influence Jimmy and your in-house Hoosier Plapjaw Jerry.

I'll be enclosing today's Washington Post and if this misses today's mail, tomorrow's.

The Post, which had epposed the committee all along, is now calling Stokes Perry Mason. It hails as the committee's new evidence what I had in Frame-Up. And all that Jimmy ruined himself over he and Lene both should have known if from no other source, from Farem-Up. If Kame did anything ether than steal the work of others and keeping himself on TV he'd have known from his own work. Only he never did any work on thecase. He also never asked me for any help. I'm not at all sure I would have provided it and if I thought it was against "immy's interest, as now is apparent, I would not have. They has to be something left for when all the broken pieces are swept up.

What was particularly disasterous to immy and helpful to the committee are matters no decent lawyer should not have taken up with immy in advance. I discussed both with him. I told him of the laundry tickets for I had both. So, knowing this, I immy the enius goes on TV and says if you have the proof I'll confess all on TV. And after he has pulled that line in the past, in anc's presence, ane has not told him not to do it again. I also told him of the fingerprint and the British bank robbery.

On these two, instead of preparing Jimmy, Lane argues with the committee and forces it to produce even more proof that makes Jimmy look bad. I warned erry long ago that when Lane pulls this showhis stuff he promotes himself only.

This is the inevtiable result of wrong approaches and very had behavior. I fear that it can react against john.

Jimmy never gave me any lead with which to help him in all the work I did for him. The one that he did write he had already given to huie, who ignored it. So the result is zero help from Jimmy. Instead he told me he hust sat down therem the Sage of Brushy, and decided what the lawers should and should not knew. From all the many mistakes he has yet to learn that he made any maitake. With Lane's help he repeats them.

He gave Foreman the phone numbers and Foreman gave them to McKillan and the FBI but Jimmy would not give them to me. He kept that LEAA card secret from me and instead, behind the back and while I was investigating for the evidentiary hearing, had it checked through an ultra-extreme right lawyer who was feneral Walker's lawyer. Twice when I saw him on the way to we Orleans he refused to provide these leads for me to investigate when I had the best possible means of doing it. And to top it all off he had Jerry sneaking around behind Jim's back and mine to arrange for that other disaster, Kershaw.

So what has all this follish publicity done except make Hark Lane rich and keep him in the public eye to get more college appearances at $1500 each? It has destroyed what little credibility jimmy had left from all his prior tricks and lies, none of which was smart. (He could have told Huie to go to hell instead of lying because Huie was in violation of the agreement in his demands.)

I'm very sorry about all of tyls because although Jimmy would not listen from the time of the evidentiary hearing on I've been working and have much. How much good it now will or can do only time will tell. But had it not been for Jimmy's very bad personal behavior and his wretchedly bad treatment of 'im I think much would have come to pass by now. The presented it by his personal acts.

Do not misunderstand me. I still do not think he shot Dr. King. I do know he was not truthful yesterday. I do not know why. I do know Lane should have prevented it.

Fooring debating points against the New York Times got have publicity but did not help immy or ohm and there is no way by which it could. To serry's child's mind it was a bid deal. And it was funny. But how does it help? Of could it?

You all had now better think of yourselves, especially ohm, who cannot be helped by this and may be hurt seriously by what Lane's pal Fauntroy does today. We'll have to wait and see.

8/19/78 Well, we have seen, still more disasters for Jimmy and Lanc's fall Fauntrey putting on the witnesses who, as I told you months ago, destroyed this ambit nonsense Lane fell for and talked so much about and Jimmy accepted and used in his testimony. In legal terms this is much more damaging than the headlines will make it seem because they will be spending seme words on the incredible committee irresponsibility with that British faker. (Lane lucked through some on that one on a personal level but he ruined Jimmy more in the way he handled it. "e got the headlines and Jimmy got his throat cut, as the headline in our local paper will reflect. It will be cholosed, too, to give you another example.) If Lane had behaved as a real lawyer instead of a childish bully locking for fights his approach would have been entirely different. He would have prevented the committee from using a palpably false and entirely unchecked story. But because he doesn t care for Jimmy and does live for attention. which means more college speech fees, he did it the wrong way, to get himself Petry Mason space on TV and the hell with what it does to what was left of Jimmy's credibility.

He is still saying that Gracie is the most important witness. Not so long ago he was saying that Charlie Stephens is the most important witness. Now he is saying that the witness against Charlie is. In actuality, we destroyed all of that in the evidentiary hearing and if he dares use "racie he'll hurt Jimmy even more.

What these hearings sow si that even today Lape knows nothing about the facts of the case, knows nothing about Jimmy and the way immy's mind works, and has done nothing to investigate. Of course there is the question of judgement in Kimmy's talking to these characters and appearing before them. If Jimmy and Jerry still think that was right they are really crasy.

Jimmy, bythm way, is twisted on Hurley and Copeland. They relate to something else.

As of yesterday Jerry was still clowding, with Lane as the ringmaster. If he did as he told me he did he staged a phoney suffender on the bank charge, on TV. This is not even grown up as much as greasy kid stuff. It could do no good for anyone and makes the effort to help Jimmy look more ridiculous.

There is something else you should know for the future. I think there can yet be a future, although like all the ether immy exploits he hust his chances very much. In all the months since he ambulsance chased himself into the case Lanz has not once asked me for any help. I can t honestly tell you that I would have if he had. I can tell you that if he does now I will not. The reason is because if what work I have done, and there is much of which you do not know, is going to be of help to Jimmy it can't be with the dishonest, self-serving and self-promoting approach of a shyster. I know Lens as he is, not as he says he is. Not as erry dreams. Not as the phoniness of his battling ghosts on TV to make himself famous and lap up all those college appearances at $1500 such - none helping immy at all.

I can't tell you that as usual Jimmy made a bad decision before his appeal was axhausted. I made two trips to jail to discuss with him taking the new evidence road. The then was neither monest nor secent enough to tell me that he was dealing behind Jim' back, through 'immy, with right@wing shysters like Kershaw. Well, you know where that and what followed led. So I've been working on this without Jimmy. I really believe that if he had not decided as he has, not behaved as he has, especially toward Jim, we might well have had some success. What has just happened has set this back. I do not sahre Jim's pessimistic view of how long but the reality is that there has been a significant setback. I'll continue to work toward this end, hoping that 'immy does not dream up more pointless and self-defeating schemes that never work.

I paid close attention to the testimory, particularly to jumy and what he said. He said a number of things he never told me.

Except for the FRI nobody will pick these up. Even im didn't. I'll explain them to him when we are together. These are among the many things Jimmy should have told me from the outset and never did. I questioned him in those areas and he told me nothing. It is not only that he should have volunteered it * it is that I did ank him. It was stupid to hold back from im and me and it was utterly insane not to do everything possible for the evidentiary hearing, regardless of how the cards were stacked. It was the only game that held any immediate chance.

To give you another illustration of how serious the committee was on following up conspiracy leads, the Fauntroy gig, Fauntroy being Lane's chum until Lane began to worry about a malpractise action, Jimmy testified to having been given two different New Orleans numbers and one in Baton Rouge, You should remember that he refused to give me these to investigate even though he gave them to Foreman, who gave them to McKillan, who I think told you. This is to say that he gave them to everyone except his ewn defense, which is really insane. (I know that Jerry has then and is holding them back still, as he and Jimmy did with that Rosenson card business.) Now if the committee was really serious it would have leaned on 'immy for those numbers so it could investigate them. But it didn't even ask for them.

I'm sorry about the present situation but I'm glad that John is getting out on parloe. This again illustrates that whatever the odds against it the only way is the striahgt way. Jim succeeded. I hope that John can get a job and make it.

If there are any more of these stunts, I hope you will stay out of them.

I've rambled in trying to inform you so ISII try to sum arize. I'll keep working as I have because nothing can be done right now, not until after the eval effects of the committee are past. The odds are now worse but it is not impossible. It is impossible with Jamy, because he never learns from any mistake and repeats them all. It is impossible for me to have anything to do with Lane. I have no interest in doing anything publicly against him. In time he and Jamy will separate but Jarry will still live in his special dream world.

If I see enything in the papers you should know I'll send it, as I hope you will do with what appears out there. If you send anything to me do not worry about sending a copy to 'im. I'll do that, as I always do. If you hear of anything I should know, please pace it along. You may have no way of knowing what is relevant, what can be important, as small things can be. Even a name that means nothing to you. This goes for John, too, when you see him in a month. And above all, for your own sakes and for your kids' future, please stay detached from all these pointless public relations tricks on which Lane lives and Jerry loges.

Remember also that in a few more months the committee will be past but the FBI will not be. It stands to be hurt very much but not at all in the way Jimmy dreams, over the dirty things it did to "ing. They are not relevant in his situation or to the crime. It also is and will be powerful so I really believe the best thing for you and your family and for John is to live your own lives and not be party to any of the games that by now it should be clear have not worked and will never work in Jummy's interest.

If you can tell me any of what he is holding back I hope you will. I have put a fair amount of it together, at the cost of great time and money. Mone of it is hurtful to him except in terms of his credibility.

One area of new vulnerability for him is the map Oliver had. I can believe it was a fake, was planted, for I see no need for him or Jerry to have beeded any map. If you hear anything about it please les me know.

I hope all of you can now lead a quieter and more peaceful life and a happier one.

Sincerely,

Please excure the typing errors. I have to get to the work I've let slide all week.
