OEO Legal Services Chief Is Ousted

By William Greider Washington Post Staff Writer

Theodore Tetzlaff director of OEO's legal serv- the country. ices program and he warned headed for political disman-

He said that OEO Acting Director Howard Phillips "seems to be going back to a situation where he wants to make it difficult for poor people to get attorneys and, once they get them, to limit what they can

While Tetzlaff insisted that he had not resigned, Phillips accepted a resignation submitted to his predecessor in the cause of representing December, then he moved in was program, which provides 2,500 half of the poor. bounced yesterday as acting lawyers for the poor across

> Meanwhile, the American resolution reaffirming its support for the program and uging Congress to set up an inlegal services when OEO is phased out of business.

> The resolution said that law-'should take very step necessary to ensure that legal services lawyers remain independent from political pressures in clients."

reached for comment, has differed publically with Tetzlaff on what rector issued an order restrict of constraints." Tetzlaff and the programs of the program of the program of the programs of the program of t on what restrictions should be placed on the lawyers for the poor. Tetzlaff conceded that some of the government-financed lawyers have been guilty of partisan political activites, but he said state and local officials have also used another man, Laurence Mc-political pressure to try to ing grant renewals to 30-day Carty, to take charge of the squelch lawsuits filed in be-extensions which Tetzlaff said will make it impossible for

"I think there's a serious lawyers to init queston," he said, "whether term litigation. anything is going to be settled on the merits any more or that the program may be Bar Association's annual con-that the program may be be a Association's annual con-whether the sole consideration pointed new legal-services offi-headed for political disman, vention in Cleveland passed a is going to be political." is going to be political."

> that Phillips "does not want to yer to head evaluation and a dependent corporation to run be locked into the idea of a legal services corporation and wants to be free to go to a revenue-sharing approach." Presiyers and the government dent Nixon's new budget proposes a corporation to operate the program, but Congress ness. must enact legislation first.

that Phillips is making and then it's just a fraud to changes "that will have the ef-lawyers to initiate any long-

Furthermore, Tetzlaff complained that Phillips has apcials who are hostile to the Tetzlaff said he was told program, including a non-lawlawyer to head program development who does not believe the government-paid lawyers should handle any domestic divorce cases for the poorthe single biggest item of busi-

"I'm afraid the program's Meanwhile, Tetzlaff claimed going to be a political football