Dear Jim,

In the course of trying to make room in my Ray file I came accross two things: a memo I think I was asked to write that has never been consulted (in fact, has yet to be collated) and paperclips marking things we were supposed to discuss long ago in the Foreman deposition.

I don't know whether any of these things is relevant in the current situation, but I do know I can't afford to take time now for another memo or to reread the deposition to get the context and whatever it was I then had in mind.

Instead, I will give you the pages on which I had these marking clips and will remove them and save a slight amount of space.

11-2 place; 12; 16 (2); 17; 18;22; 23;25; 27; 28;29 (2);

This includes Foremans demonstration of his knowledge of the case in his failure to identify the "star witness". And his statement of more than hiring students to investigate but the statement of personal investigation, as I read it. I noticed these things in removing the clips.

Sincerely,
