Dear Harold,

I am glad that I was able to talk with you at ~~length~~ length when you were here. The copy of the appendix to O. in N.O. is very valuable - I am still trying to absorb it all.

I hope you got down to L.A. okay. Garrison's very interesting speech was reprinted in full in the L.A. Free Press (of all places!). Since you reported^{ly} got to confront Liebler in L.A., the enclosed clippings from the Daily Cal may be superfluous. Liebler is a smoothie - he can steer a not-too-knowledgeable reporter away from the right questions.

The lead from the Eason show is being worked on by Stan P. Nothing sensational, but the guy seems real; there may be some quite useful leads.

For the further completion of your records, I am enclosing one (1) copy of each of two (2) buttons, as requested in our previous conversation.

Sincerely,

Paul

Paul Hoch

P.S. : The amount I had previously sent you for a copy of the appendix was $30; the plane fare to ~~L.A.~~ L.A. was $12. If you insist on paying me back, please put this on the bottom of your pile of bills.
