Quick Action Indicated In Kennedy Book Suit

NEW YORK (AP) - A Man-Kennedy declined twice yesterspeedy decision on Mrs. John F. court action with reporters. Kennedy's suit to block publication of author William Manchester's book about the assassination of the president.

Supreme Court Justice Saul S. ranking two publishers to appear before him Dec. 27 to show cause why an injunction against the book, 000 words. "Death of a President," should not be granted.

Streit said he would "decide the matter shortly" after the hearing.

A 10-Page Affidavit

Mrs. Kennedy submitted a 10page affidavit to the court book permanently. in her petition to yesterday forbid publication of the book. She said in her complaint that would cause her publication "great and irreparable injury" and "result in precisely the sensationalism and commercialism which we - Robert F. able for all to read. Kennedy and I — have sought so strenuously to avoid."

er, submitted a supporting fivepage affidavit.

Neither the senator nor Mrs. Kennedy appeared in court. Sen.

hattan judge indicated today a day to discuss the book or the

The publishers are:

Cowles Communications, Inc., publisher of Look magazine, w which is reported to have paid c $665,000 for the right to serialize the Manhattan portions of the book starting in justice, ordered Manchester and the Jan. 10 issue. Look has planned a four-part series of 80,- > Harper & Row, Publishers, Inc., which plans to bring out t the full, 300,000-word hard-cover book in April.

In his affidavit, Sen. Kennedy indicated the family does not seek to block publication of the

He said: "It has always been my intention, as well as plaintiff's (Mrs. Kennedy), that the acts concerning the death of he late President Kennedy should be published and avail-

"We retained the contractual right to approve the manuscript n Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D- only in order to assure the N.Y., the late president's broth- accuracy and good taste of the text and the dignity of its presentation.

> "Certainly we did not render so much help and assistance to Manchester merely to have the manuscript written and withheld without ever seeing the light of day."

No Look Substitute Planned

A spokesman for Look said that if Mrs. Kennedy is upheld, a substitute Jan. 10 issue would not be published. He said there was not enough time to prepare another issue.

Another spokesman for the publisher said there was every indication the issue due out Jan. 10 would be skipped if Mrs. Kennedy is upheld and appeals fail. Parts of the magazine have already been printed. The revenue loss would amount to more than $3 million, he said.

Also involved are plans for publication of the work abroad in book and serial form. Mrs. Kennedy said she understood that Manchester had granted Michael Joseph, Ltd., of London the right to publish the book in England.

In a related development, Dell Books offered $1 million yesterday to Harper & Row for the book's paperback rights. Donald Fine, editor-in-chief of Dell Books, said he believed this was the largest offer ever made for paperback rights.

In her court petition, Mrs. Kennedy said, "The threatened publication in total disregard of my rights and, if it goes forward, will utterly destroy

One of the most important issues centered around whether Manchester and the publishers

See BOOK, Page A-3

BOOK

$1.Million Offered For Paperback Rights

Continued From Page A-1 understood that publication will had permission from the Kennen dys to publish.

In the affidavit supporting her petition, Mrs. Kennedy said that in return for her help in preparing his manuscript, Manchester agreed not to publish until he obtained "my express consent and approval as to the mode, time and text of any publica-

She said she had not given her

In his supporting affadivit, Sen. Kennedy said that he had not cleared the manuscript.

The senator said: "I categorically state that at no time did I said the telegram cited by ever give my approval or con-Harper & Row "makes no statesent to the test of the manument approving either text or script to any publication thereof, or to any time of publication."

Sen. Kennedy said in

Mrs. Kennedy gave Manchester two lengthy interviews—about 10 hours of tape recordings. Friends of the late Harper." President's wife say she made no attempt at self-censorship in the interviews and that she had representatives that Manchester revealed her deepest thoughts.

Three clauses in an 11-point sion with the thought that the memorandum signed by Manch-book might never be published." ester and Sen. Kennedy March as to whether the defendants had permission from the Kenne-chester and that he had been dys to publish. The memorandum was one of five documents filed in court by attorneys for Mrs. Kennedy.

The three clauses read:
"The completed manuscript shall be reviewed by Mrs. John F. Kennedy and Robert F. Kennedy, and the final text shall not be published unless and until approved by them."

"No motion picture or TV y adaptation shall ever be made based on the book. Other rights may be disposed of by William h- Manchester with the approval of nd Mrs. John F. Kennedy and Robert F. Kennedy, though it is not the intention to prevent the sale of serial option rights to a to responsible publisher.'

The book may not be pube, lished before Nov. 22, 1968, five la y years after the assassination, d rteunless Mrs Kennedy designates s a prior date, and shall be pub-s d lished at such date thereafter as a it shall be mutually agreeable to the contracting parties. It is 1 take place promptly after Nov. 1968, unless there is some erious reason for either party to withhold his agreement there-

Harper & Row has said that Sen. Kennedy told Manchester in a telegram last July that "members of the Kennedy family will place no obstacle in the way of publication of his book."

Manchester assured publishers of Look in a written agreement last August that the Kennedy family had approved publication.

In his affidavit, Sen. Kennedy

Sen. Kennedy said in his affidavit that the telegram had been sent at the "urging of defendants Manchester

He said:

"I was told by Harper's was becoming ill from an obsesbook might never be published."

Sen. Kennedy said that on 26,1964, are involved in the issue July 29, the day after he sent the telegram, he spoke with Man-"specifically and emphatically assured" that the original contract would be followed scrupulously.

In a second telegram to Harper & Row Aug. 5, the senator said, he noted that the publishers must obtain his and Mrs. Kennedy's permission before producing the book and "that has not yet been given."

Mrs. Kennedy's court petition gave no clues to what portions of her 1964 interviews with Manchester that she objected to seeing incorporated in the book.

15