g'Death of a President' a Best-Seller in

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 10 (AP) | papers in Prague, Budapest and | trim some parts are presented Manchester's "Death of a Presi-dent" is the new best seller in book being serialized in West-Communist Czechoslovakia, ern magazines. Hungary and Bulgaria.

issues of the controlled news- forts of the Kennedy family to

- The serialization of William Sofia which carry long summa-

The legal dispute surround-Readers line up eagerly for ing the serialization and the ef-

by Communist Party propagandists as evidence supporting the Communist theory that President Kennedy was the victim of a conspiracy.

Bulgarians, who normally are not oversupplied with Western writings, appear to be getting the most extensive extracts from Western magazines.

Eastern Europe

The 600,000-circulation party newspaper, Rabontnichesko Delo, every Tuesday carries liberal portions from the "unabridged" serialization in the West German magazine Stern.

thing tending to show Johnson Warren Report."

m an unravorante ngnt.

"This approach is quite different from the usual heavyhanded anti-Americanism that has been part of Bulgarian party propaganda," one Western diplomat said.

"Their version is that Kennedy died of a plot and they are circulating any piece of The Bulgarian party paper literature which might cast a. pays special attention to any-slight shadow of doubt on the