

Garrison Subpoenas a Fourth Man In Probe of JFK Assassination

NEW ORLEANS, March 3 (AP)—District Attorney Jim Garrison's office subpoenaed a fourth man, identified only as Dante Marachini, for questioning today in its widening Kennedy assassination probe. No information was immediately available about Marachini's occupation or background.

A spokesman for the District Attorney's office said "no comment" to all inquiries.

Garrison Claims Proof

Of the three other men called into Garrison's office this week under subpoena, two left after being questioned and the third, retired business executive Clay L. Shaw, was booked on conspiracy to commit murder.

Garrison has said several times he will prove President John F. Kennedy was assassinated Nov. 22, 1963, as the culmination of a conspiracy started in New Orleans.

In an application for a warrant to search Shaw's home, the District Attorney's office said it had evidence that Shaw, Lee Harvey Oswald and free-lance pilot David W. Ferrie met at Ferrie's apartment here in September, 1963, and agreed "to kill John F. Kennedy." Ferrie died last week in his apartment here.

Court Shift Studied

Shaw, 54, former managing director of the New Orleans International Trade Mart, has emphatically denied any such participation.

Shaw's lawyers were reported to be pondering a legal move to take their client's case out of the Orleans Parish Criminal District Court.

Two sources, who declined use of their names, said the lawyers would file a motion "as soon as possible" to have the Federal court assume jurisdiction. It was not clear what legal tactics would be used.

The other two men subpoenaed in Garrison's investigation were Dean Andrews, assistant district attorney in suburban Jefferson Parish (County), and James Lewallen, employe of a missile plant here. Lewallen once roomed with Ferrie. Oswald on occasion asked Andrews for legal advice.
