Dear Both,

Lil had a call after I was asleep. She was told you'd return this week, so welcome! Hope you had as fine a time as you should have had!!

Enclosed is my latest to 'amic. I've lost track but it seems she is about caught up.

Forgot or I'd have made a copy of a letter I wrote several in the Baltimore area who had been trying to help. Dean ~~Kennedy~~ ^{Kennedy} ~~Hall~~ ^{Hall} of the AR ~~RM~~ and Ohio State has come close to literal plagiarizing the utter rubbish of Max Holland

If my typing is even worse I ^{now} have to keep my left heel higher than my heart and that is a bit more than the usual awkward positions forced on me.

I'd misunderstood that helpful stack of address labels you'd made me. Thought it was a duplicate of my returns. Then mislaid it! While Using it! Found it after addressing this envelope. many Thanks!

I won't try to up date you on all I've done in your absence but it will all be available via Gerry or Bill. And now that you are back, I'll send you disks. Back or due to be. The volume is considerable. I hope to hold on long enough to get it all read and corrected. Maybe more done, too!!

I think I'd spent two weeks in the local hospital before you left with congestive heart failure. Two ~~months~~ ^{months} later, when it happened again I was not expected to survive. I was ambulated to ~~Johns Hopkins~~ ^{Hopkins} ~~Hopkins~~. The report to the local doctor who sent me there listed nine things, most serious, for which I was treated. That doctor has now told me three time he thinks it is amazing that I'm surviving all I am. Even the dermatologist told me this week that she regards it as a miracle when I walk in. As I've been doing fairly often because two ~~of~~ the medicines that keep me alive cause string ^{of} itching and one mistake caused the worst medication rash she'd ever seen.

And just yesterday the protime shifted to seven seconds ~~faster~~ slow!

I think you have Saketh the Watchman. If not ask ^{Bill}, who has been simply magnificent about such things. A long epilogue is being retyped. 11 chapters! I have proof that the CIA sent Powers to get killed to break that summit up. I mean it seemed certain to them, as you'll see. The rest I'll leave for you to read.

I've heard little from Gerry. I take that to be he's busy. I hope he has been able to work on your book. McKnight is making some time on Honorable ⁱⁿ. It was wonderful of him to offer to retype Bogus Revelations, the Hall ms. He did the preface the first ^{of}. He has done a fine book on King's Poor Peoples' campaign that has been accepted for publication. Aside from a book on the WC staff I expect him to do one on the executive sessions. So, we'dl get a fair amount of the history written. Our best to you both,
