Page 62-9. W. Examiner ## Wed., July 2, 1969

11 Named In Charges By SEC

NEW YORK - (UPI) - A federal grand jury today handed up a 45 count indict-ment against 11 men for violations of securities laws, fraud, filing false statements, obstruction of justice and conspiracy.

U.S. Attorney Robert Morgenthau said the indictment arose from a continuing grand jury investigation into the activities of the Crescent Corp. and Pakeo Companies Inc. from 1965 to 1967. Both were holding companies, but Crescent since has been acquired by National Indus-

The indictment included 39 s e parate charges against Lewis L. Colasurdo a major stockholder of Pakco and at the time of the alleged offenses a major stockholder, director and president of Crescent. McLANEY

Others named in the indictment were Michael J. McLa-ney, John W. Becher, Alexander N. Bronsen, Anthony Cipo, Richard G. Taylor, Is-rael Finkelstein, Pedro Torres, Frederick J. Wagner, Everett A. Whorl and Anthony Colasurdo, a brother of

The indictment charges the defendants engaged in a conspiracy to use the assets of Crescent and Pakco to gain control of Crescent for Lewis Colasurdo and Bronsen.

The indictment further charges that the defendants filed false documents with tne Securities & Exchange Commission in order to hide the fact of the acquisition from the regulating body and from the stockholders of the two companies.

NS STATES-ITEM JANUARY 20. 1

from Bahamas

Michael McLaney, former:for some time." New Orleanian barred from the McLaney, a native of New before Castro came to power. Bahamas as an undesirable, Orleans, was a top tennis playoff Florida, is a self-governing has offered $10,000 "to anyone ar who won the city title almost who can prove I have any connection with any mob."

off Florida, is a service decades ago. He held the championship of the City Park championship of the City Park

He asked a reporter for the Tennis Club for a number of Nassau Tribune by telephone years, from Miami, "What does the McLaney also was an outlaw say about this? Do they standing amateur golfer. He have to give a reason?" was employed for a period as have to give a reason?" a deputy sheriff in Criminal M'LANEY would not com-District Court.

ment further, saying, "I want to think about this." If he re-HE LEFT New Orleans in the turns to the Bahamas he can mid-'50s and went to Miami, be deported. He was in Miami where he operated the L'Aiglon when the government decided (Little Eagle), a fashionable to bar him from the country. restaurant catering to an exclu-

While no reason was given sive clientele. for the "undesirable" tag, a Prominent in gambling cirspokesman said the deportation cles in Miami and New York, has been "under consideration he opened a gambling casino

the Hotel Nacional in Havana