Tear Cylvia,

Not until today did I get around to posting the suggestions and corsections you made in your letter of February 15. They were helpful and included some I had not already picked up. It is surprising how much I have forgotten with my mind trying to concentrate on other things. For example, your cament in the clip (under page 27 in your letter). I am certain I remember testimony about the clip, that it was not purchased with the rifle, and recall my own feeling of the time that here was an obvious lead that should have been followed during the aborted search for the source of the amounition. Yet I cannot recall where or whose testimony.

Under page 32 you refer to having sent to plature of Fritz with the riche. emember that when it was first found he was at that time and spot photographed with it but only, according to the testimony, after Day had obacked for prints. Others also testified about this.

under page 31, you are quite right in your commenton the cited Boover testimony. I should not have let it out. Tome explanation, and some Tom ission and staf !

Fith reference to Cherlie Virginio Davis (page 76 ) The is the name by which the Com ission's editor identified her, if not the official deporter. The Gradul.

In your discussion of page 81, the names you list are those who searched the Paine residence 11/22. There were two FMI agents the next day, with towall and Hose. I was being kind to them, from the testimony, in saying they were only present. See 7H189.

about the photos, I can imagine a guy like Oswald be ving them made for the kind of particular purpose he might have had in mind. I do not know. It is hard to believe they could have been faked, although it could have been done. I falt that for my purposes it was best to take it and play it straight. The Commission said there was but the single negative. There were both. See towall 78194 and Rose 78251. Each swore they got both. Then considered with the Commission not taking note and not looking into the absence of the camera in the inventories of that was seized, I believe it damages them quite seriously. Attacking the genuincless of the negatives, on the other hand, was risky, and I could see but like a sore to be gained.

Page 142. I could not find what you were referring to in the part of CE 2003 cited, pp.252-254, but I'd like very much to see what you were talking about.

Can you give me the citation for your note on 143, the Clements-DeBrueys interview with Bogard? Did you notice when De Drueys, who seems to have been the TRI's Cuban expert in "ew Orleans, first showed up in Dallas? A remarkable coincidence, and equally remarkable thatbyith the Cawald-Cuban refugee story, he was not used to question Oswald.

Page 156- I could not find what you were referring to.

There is nothing new, yet there may be. I will sit hard on my own hopes and not unduly raise yours, but I have indications of interest in three European countries. I have also learned that Lane's book is on the Boadley-head Spring list, which probably means June publication. I have heard nothing more about it since I mentioned to you what I had earlier heard, that a commission of British historians was going over it to remove error. I hope they had the requisite knowledge. And I hope if Trevor-Roper was one, he does better by Lane than he did by himself.

This brings to mind a rather odd thing: Collins had my book examine: by a man with exactly the same name as Travor-Roper's severest critic -Sparrow. Bather an odd way of making an impertial determination, ian't it?

Did I every ask you if the Cawald autopsy charts are in the 26 volumes, or Tippit's autopsy, with or without charts, or even a decent medical report on him? I do not how recall any, and there is the disagreement between the police and the Report counting of the wounds and apparently between the police and the police versions of the seriousness of each.

The OBS footage from the BBO dramatization, short as it was, interested me very much because they were not abla to faithfully re-enect the shooting: They had to have the actor shoot elmost directly ahead! They also felt it necessary to take other dramatic liberties with the Report's account.

I have finally had an enswer from Collier in which he insists that his actual costs will be higher than the prices he quoted and carefully avoiding any reference to the number of books he is talking about. Even if his figures are not inflated, he has included a guerantee of his normal profit for himself. I replied telling him I'd be in touch as soon as I heard, either way, and to date I have not.

Inything new from Ramperts, or enywhere else? Did you see what I did not but was reported to me, an item in the New York Review saying there were two books due to come out. Some time ago, heard there was someone name Newman on the Alk-night walk who was supposedly writing one. NOR did not raply.

Sincerely,
