

Dear Mr. Bains,

9/23/72

Separately I'll be sending you the three books of the WHITTEWASH series, insured. My wife will write a check for $18.00 and will enclose it with this. The $15.00 will pay for the three books and insurance, which we absorb when all three are ordered at one time.

As I proceeded with the ransacking of the Archives what had not been included in the 26 and should see the light of day grew to such volume that I had to abandon my original concept and I felt that text was required to make sense of it. This Oswald in New Orleans was such a spinoff, as was Photographic Whitewash. There are others that exist in xerox editions only. And I do persist, so there will be more, but there is no prospect of commercial interest or my raising the money for private publication.

Oswald in New Orleans is out of print. Were I to sell you one of the few copies I have, I'd have to charge the cost of xeroxing a bit more than 400 pages. However, I would be willing to lend you a copy if you have xeroxing facilities. The cost would then not be much if any less, for I'd ask for a xerox as payment. I have not gotten a cent from that book and frankly, when I've loaned copies for this purpose, I've not gotten the copies back or xeroxes.

When so many people who profess interest in the subject can behave this way, does it not answer your question, how can they sit by and do nothing? Such is the nature of our current society and what it does to otherwise decent people.

The four books of which you know, these three ^{and} Oswald in New Orleans, are all that I've been able to bring out on the JFK assassination. You also know of Frame-Up.

On the 26, if you have not had a reply by the time you get this, why not write your Senator or Congressman? The $76.00 charged includes the postage, which the GPO frabks. I told Meros about a private source, but it is better to get from the GPO first so that the limited supply in the hands of the private source may last longer.

If the GPO has sold all theirs, they should let you know.

When you and Meros are out of the service, if you have time there will probably be some things you can do to help this work. There is much I can't get to, many files I've not be able to index, etc. I'm probably older than your fathers. When I meet with people of your age we usually have a good rapport. But because of the age difference and because we live in the country, I do not know many young people locally, so there are none here of whom I know who can or will help. In some ways the area in which we live is a bit backward. I have travelled the breadth of the country speaking to college audiences, but neither of the two local colleges has had any interest. So I have no communication with the local students, either.

Thanks for your interest.

Best regards,

Harold Weisberg

September 17

Docter Newberg,

Thomas Moses and I thank you for the rapid delivery of Photographic 25 Ritewark, and Frame-26. After reading them I find myself in a state of debility. You can see masses of american people hit by and do nothing to remedy
this wrong; we have many questions but will not bother you with them at this moment because continued study may answer them for us.

25 Rat I care is that you send me copies of:

21 Ritewark (my paperback is worn out)

21 Ritewark II

21 Ritewark III: The

Decline

21 Ritewark:

25 Rat in New Orleans

Documentary 21 Ritewark:

Suggestion and the

there anything I can do to try and get an answer from these people.

Thank you for all the help you have given them and I do fear, keep up your much needed work and maybe when Tom and I get out of the service we will be able to assist you in some way.

Sincerely
Thomas D. Baird

Once Secret Documents.

I seem to be having trouble acquiring the complete 21 volume Warren Report. I wrote to the Superintendent of Documents to find out if the price was still $46.00, and to find out how they are shipped and who I should pay for the shipping. The letter was mailed well over 6 weeks ago and still no answer. I've

THOMAS V. BAIN

288-42-8574

25th AG COMPANY

25th INF. DIV.

APO SF 96557