THE NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

Headquarters for the NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD have been moved from New York to Detroit and Ernest Goodman, of the law firm of Goodman, Crockett, Eden, Robb and Philo, has been elected national Guild president.

The Guide To Subversive Organizations and Publications, published in December 1961 by the U. S. Government Printing Office (Price 70 cents), offers the following pertinent information regarding the NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD:

1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149).
2. Cited as a Communist front which "is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions" and which "since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents." (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally released Sept. 17, 1950).
3. "To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection." (Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S.Doc. 117, April 23, 1956. p. 91).

Mortimer Riener, first executive secretary of the Guild, who was also a member of the Communist Party at the time, has described in sworn testimony how he and other communist lawyers worked to organize the Guild in 1936.

According to the House Committee on Un-American Activities the National Lawyers Guild has been campaigning for:

1. Abolition of congressional committees assigned to the task of coping with subversion in the United States;
2. Curbing the investigative powers of the F.B.I.;
3. Repeal of the Smith Act prohibiting teaching or advocacy of forceful overthrow of the United States Government;
4. Discontinuance of the Attorney General's listings of subversive organizations;
5. Repeal of the Internal Security Act and the Walter-McCarran Immigration Act;
6. Unrestricted issuance of passports to subversive individuals.

The reputation of the National Lawyers Guild as a tool of the communist-socialist apparatus is so well known as to make it incredible that any attorney could belong to this organization unless he was strongly sympathetic to the aims of the Communist Party. Many known members of the National Lawyers Guild have been identified as communists under oath. An extremely high percentage of them are habitually active in support of communist-front activities.

The following is the list of attorneys appearing in the "1962 Lawyers Referral Directory" of the National Lawyers Guild Anniversary Program.
