Dear Senator Mitchell,

After I wrote you day before yesterday Mr. Eckel phoned and we agreed on the date of Friday, September 10 for you and your group coming here.

Where I sit in the ^{living} room I keep a small diary for posting medical and other appointments to avoid what happened a conflict. I'm sorry but I did not remember it until my wife told me about it. She had that matter on her desk and although I knew about it, I had forgotten it.

I can still make it that day but if you want to be here for more than through lunch, at not much after that I'll have to go pick up a tax I have to arrange for and take a nap because ^{we} are due at Hood College ^{that evening} for some of their Centennial celebration.

I realize from what Mr. Eckel explained to me that you want to be able to use what you get here the following week. If you would like me to be helpful for longer than until shortly after lunch I think that if it is possible with the schedules on your end to make it a little earlier that would be better. I am 80, in ill health, and because I cannot avoid getting up early I'll be tired ~~next~~ when that affairs begins, unless I can rest ~~some~~ that afternoon.

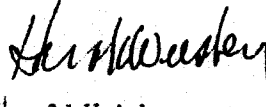

In that time frame the only medical appointments now scheduled are at 10:45 on the 8th and 10:15 of the 14th.

But if the 10th is the only day convenient for you by all means make it that day and we'll see how I hold up. Meanwhile, I'll see if the tax can be gotten the day before and save that time.

I saw Dr. McKnight this morning. Jerry is a fine man and a fine scholar. He thinks that he can be of help and, of course, is willing to be.

Again, my apologies.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
