GOOD MORNING

yet kindles fires; so, where absence kills a little love, it fans a great one. The same wind snuffs candles

La Rochefoucauld

K, MD., SATURDAY, AUGUST 14, 1971

Press Run News

14,300 | Total

25,800

EIGHTEEN PAGES

PRICE: TEN CENTS

By Attorney General John Mitchel

ent State Probe Rule

incident involving Ohio Nationeral grand jury probe into the slaying of four Kent State Uni-versity students in a shooting "The essary, campus confrontation.
Mitchell, in a t unwarranted three-page

dents said in a released stateshock of learning of the deciment in their behalf that, The parents of the slain stu-

Guardsmen.

the shock that came to us when our children were killed at Kent State on May 4, 1970." Four were killed and nine others were wounded during a

Gen. John N. Mitchell shut the door Friday on pleas for a fed-excusable," that the shootings were "unnecof a presidential commission statement, endorsed the finding

But he added: "Our review persuades me that there is no ngen, the campus and that there is no likelihood of successful prosecredible evidence of a concutions of individual guards-Guardsmen to shoot students on spiracy between National ranted," of Justice would "It is my judgment that fur-her action by the Department not be war-

Mitchell cited what he scribed as a massive and in-tensive Federal investigation into the slayings and said the sary, facts presented him "support the conclusion reached by the of the commission, "unneces-President's Commission unwarranted and that excusable, Further investigation by "could not reasonably be exfederal grand jury, he said, judgment." pected to produce any new evifurther to making a prosecutive dence which would contribute

In Kent, Ohio, Robert I.
White, president of Kent State University, said the school
"must and does" accept the department's decision.

dents as well as congressional and civil rights spokesmen had The parents of the four stu-See KENT, Page A-5

KENT

(Continued From Page A-1) urged a federal grand jury investigation into the shootings.

So had former Pennsylvania
Gov. William W. Soranton, chairman of the President's commission on Campus Unrest.
"We had faith in the action that would ultimately be taken by the Department of Justice, and we had faith in the system of justice for which it is respon-and we had faith in the system of justice for which it is responsible," said the parents in a statement released in their behalf by the Rev. John P. Adams of the United Methodist Church's Department of Law, Justice and Community Relations.

"Now we know that the Department of Justice will not act. It is inconceivable to us that this is so, particularly because its own investigative reports indicate that such action would have been fully appropriate."