

'Not a Mental Case,' Martha

By CLARE CRAWFORD and MINZOLA McLENDON

C 1972 Washington Star-News
WASHINGTON —

Martha Mitchell says she made up her mind to go straight before she leaves town this week.

"I want to be here my state is ruined and that's what I'm going to do," she said. "I'm not going to let anything happen to me."

ness for the Republican Party for them to cast aspersions on the."

Mrs. MITCHELL talked freely about her affiliation to her husband and her own political beliefs. However, she would not discuss the alleged charges of Democratic head...

...in the nearby buildings...

cause she knows too much and has told what she knew to the press.

She added new details to her account yesterday of a week in the White House in Newport, Calif., in 1969. She said that King is the new president of the Committee for the Re-Election of the President, which she said she had...

Says, Packing Her Bag

—from a newspaper.

Mrs. MITCHELL said her left hand was cut when King "threw me like a window, smashing me into a glass." She displayed scars on her left hand—one on her middle finger, another on her ring finger. She said her ring finger, which had five stitches, may be permanently enlarged.

Mrs. Mitchell described her "imprisonment," which "was a most bizarre thing. It was worse than the Watergate thing." However, she would not elaborate on "the Watergate case."

the big turn for the loading of the Democratic headquarters.

She said her hand had all right and that when it came back the next morning he found she had to give her left hand to the doctor. Mrs. Mitchell said she was in the hospital for 24 hours and finally King took her to the Presbyterian Hospital for surgery.

She said she was given no food and was held incommunicado for 24 hours in the hotel. She said Lee Johnson, her secretary, did not help her during the scuffle.

Mrs. MITCHELL said she was in the hospital for 24 hours and that she was given no food. She said she was in the hospital for 24 hours and that she was given no food.

She said she was in the hospital for 24 hours and that she was given no food. She said she was in the hospital for 24 hours and that she was given no food.

She said she was in the hospital for 24 hours and that she was given no food. She said she was in the hospital for 24 hours and that she was given no food.