Fitzgerald Firing Hearing Stirs Mollenhoff Outburst

Clark R. Mollenhoff, a former aide to President Nixon Service Commission hearing yesterday with charges that it was a "kangaroo court" trying to "bar the truth" about the firing of Pentagon managemnt analyst A. Ernest Fitzgerald.

Despite requests by the hearing examiner that he be quiet, Mollenhoff stood up several times in the audience of jected. the hearing room, and demanded that he be allowed to testify.

When the examiner, Her man D. Staiman, threatened to ask him to leave, Mollenhoff declared loudy:

"I'm only tring to get the truth on the record."

Then he picked up a thick briefcase and strode out the ous hearings, his appearance door, trailed by a wire service as a witness would violate the reporter.

Fitzgerald is seeking reinstatement to the job he lost with the Air Force after telling Congress about a $2 billion cost overrun on the C-5A airplane.

Mollenhoff, a long - time member of the Washington tiality of advisory conversa-bureau of The Des Moines tions involving the White Register and Tribune, served House staff, as a special counsel to Mr. It cited as Nixon in 1969 and 1970. He cisions to su Nixon in 1969 and 1970. He cisions to support its position, summoned Air Force officials and said this "executive privito his White House office in November, 1969, after Fitzgerald was dropped from his job.

Last week lawyers for Fitzto Mr. Nixon and White House Counsel John Dean III.

who later returned to being a had been "brutally misman's announcement that he reporter, interrupted a Civil treated." Mollenhoff said in had yet decided whether to alinterviews that he wrote them low Mollenhoff's testimony, as part of an unsuccessful ef- the lawyer called on him to fort to persuade Mr. Nixon to speak. have Fitzgerald rehired.

Two weeks ago, lawyers for the Civil Service Commission ery effort is being made to hearing. Air Force lawyers ob-

At the beginning of yesterday's hearing, Staiman an-nounced that he had not yet decided whether to allow Mol-lenhoff to testify, because he hearings, which, until a court had just received legal briefs ruling obtained by Fitzgerald, on the matter.

In its memo, the Air Force contended that since Mollenhoff had been at several previnormal judicial rule against testimony by persons who have heard others testify.

The memo added that Mol-lenhoff also should not be allowed to testify about what he based on executive privilege. learned as a White House staffer because of "the confiden-

It cited a string of legal deledge" is needed to encourage to do. "full and frank discussion . within the executive branch."

gerald made public several rever, John C. Bodner Jr., said cent letters from Mollenhoff Mollenhoff would tell all he knew about Fitzgerald's firing The letters said Fitzgerald ad been "brutally miseated." Mollows at the said without involking executive privilege." Then, despite Staiman's annulusement to the said the said without involking executive privilege." Then, despite Staiman's annulusement to the said the said without involking executive privilege.

Mollenhoff, heavy-set and 6 foot 4, rose in the front row of Fitzgerald asked that Mollen- the audience and declared, hoff be allowed to testify at "This is a kangaroo court. Evprevent the facts being put on the line."

The soft-spoken Staiman reprimanded Bodner and Mol-lenhoff for "this public interhad always been closed.

"If the truth is an interference," Mollenhoff responded loudly, "then I'm interfering."

After Mollenhoff left the room, Air Force Col. James D. Pewitt, the only witness of the day, refused to say whether he met with Mollenhoff about the Fitzgerald case in the White House. He said his refusal was

Several weeks ago, at an earlier session of the hearing, Air Force Secretary Robert C Seamans Jr. said he decided to abolish Fitzgerald's job as part of a staff reorganization because Fitzgerald had completed the work he was hired Fitzgerald contends that he was dismissed because of his Yesterday Fitzgerald's law- disclosure about the C-5A.