Mr. Harold Weisberg
Rt. 8
Frederick, Maryland 21701

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

This is in reply to your letter of July 6, 1975, received in this office on July 9, 1975, in which you make requests concerning the records of the President's Commission on the assassination of President Kennedy under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552) as amended.

Your original request was for copies of all records released since the last regular review, which was in 1972-73. If you want copies of all records released by that review, except the CIA documents we have already furnished you, we will be pleased to furnish them.

You make FOIA (Freedom of Information Act) requests for records concerning the following:

- (1) The withholding from research of Commission Document 702. The documents which withheld CD 702 from research, both of which can be made available to you, are letters of the Department of Justice of August 13, 1965 (see attached List C withholding it), and of November 3, 1970, not listing it for release. We released it when we found in the course of reference service that it had been published.
- (2) Declassification of a letter of May 22, 1964, from J. Edgar Hoover to J. Lee Rankin relating to Mexican tourist permits. This letter was the cover letter for Commission Document 965 and was not filed with that document (see List E attached to the Department of Justice letter of August 13, 1965, in item 2 above). We withheld the letter in our 1967-68 review of the unnumbered documents (Government Agencies Involved - FBI) because it related to Oswald's Mexican trip and relations with Mexico. It was among the records the Department of Justice asked us to continue to withhold in the 1972-73 review by its letter of April 18, 1973, in response to our letter of May 15, 1972, both of which can be made available to you. We declassified the letter of May 22, 1964, from J. Edgar Hoover to J. Lee Rankin on the basis of the declassification of its enclosure (CD 965) by the Department of Justice letter of August 13, 1965, when we found a copy of the letter in screening the Oswald Mexico trip file for a researcher.

- (3) Declassification of a letter of July 7, 1964, relating to Mexican Immigration Department records, 46 enclosures of which had been forwarded with it. We do not have records that show the reasons why documents were classified or declassified. Presumably the classified documents relating to investigation of Oswald's trip to Mexico were classified because relations with a foreign country were involved. We released this document when we could do so in screening the file for Oswald's Mexico trip.
- (4) Declassification of a letter of J. Lee Rankin to J. Edgar Hoover of April 24, 1964. This letter was withheld from research in our 1967-68 review of the unnumbered documents of the Commission because it involved the investigation of the Mexican trip of Oswald and the question of foreign relations with Mexico. It was among the records the Department of Justice requested us to continue to withhold by its letter of April 18, 1973 (item 3 above). It was declassified and released by a letter of January 24, 1975, from the Department of Justice in response to our letter of July 31, 1974. We have been unable to identify the dossier furnished to Ambassador Mann.
- (5) Records relating to the withholding and releasing of the FBI letterhead memorandum (LHM) on interviews with Yuri Nosenko (Commission Document 434). CD 434 is a duplicate of part of the portion of Commission Document 651 declassified and released by the Department of Justice by its letter of January 24, 1975 (item 4 above) except the deleted matter on the first page of CD 434. The letter of January 24, 1975, was therefore regarded as authority for the release of CD 434 with the deletion. The deleted part of the first paragraph of CD 434 is denied to you under 5 U.S.C. 552 (b) (5).
- (6) Page dated October 27, 1959, dealing with Oswald's hospitalization. As stated in our letter of June 17, 1975, the page relating to Oswald's Moscow hospitalization on October 27, 1959, is from the Oswald-Ruby Chronology in the Commission's records. It was previously withheld from research because it contained information from a document withheld from research.

- (7) Deletions in the Coleman-Slawson memorandum on Oswald's foreign activities. The deleted material is denied to you under 5 U.S.C. 552 (b) (5).
- (8) CIA interviews or reports relating to what Nosenko told the CIA. No documents of this kind have been found in the records of the Commission.
- (9) Nosenko records of any kind still withheld. These records consist of the following:
  - (a) Letter of Rankin to Helms, March 6, 1964.
  - (b) Memorandum of Slawson to Jenner, Liebler, Ball and Belin, March 9, 1964.
  - (c) Memorandum of Coleman and Slawson to Stern, March 12, 1964.
  - (d) Memorandum of Slawson to Rankin, July 15, 1964.
  - (e) Memorandum of Slawson to Coleman, July 17, 1964.
  - (f) Memorandum of July 23, 1964 (no names given).
  - (g) Memorandum of Slawson to Rankin, August 22, 1964.
  - (h) Transcript of executive session of Commission of June 23, 1964.
  - (i) Perhaps pages 63-73 of transcript of executive session of the Commission, which relate to defectors without naming Nosenko.
  - (j) Page 1 of Commission Document 651.
  - (k) Cover letter of CD 451.

These records relating to Nosenko are denied to you under 5 U.S.C. 552 (b) (5). Page 2 of CD 651 relating to Nosenko can be supplied to you. No other FBI records relating to Nosenko have been found among the records of the Commission. We regret that a few items relating to Nosenko listed above were inadvertently omitted in our previous letter to you.

Related to the withholding of these records are the following documents:

- (1) Note of Marion M. Johnson (NARS) to Arthur Dooley (CIA) of August 14, 1967, which can be made available to you. The lists of documents referred to in the note are denied to you under 5 U.S.C. 552 (b) (5).

- (2) Letter of Thomas H. Karamessines, Deputy Director for Plans, CIA, to Robert H. Bahmer, Archivist of the United States, of October 2, 1967. This letter is denied to you under 5 U.S.C. 552 (b) (1).
  - (3) Letter of May 1, 1975, of Robert S. Young, FOI Coordinator, CIA, to James B. Rhoads, which can be made available to you.
  - (4) Note of Marion M. Johnson (NARS) to Charles P. Dexter (CIA) July 30, 1974, and letter of John D. Morrison, Jr., Acting General Counsel, CIA, to James B. Rhoads, October 1, 1974, which can be made available to you.
- (10) Declassification of certain records on March 13, 1975:

The declassification actions on these records on that date resulted from finishing up work on requests for reviews of those records from a researcher in order to transmit copies to him. Our correspondence with him, consisting of our letters sent to him dated July 10 and August 13, 1974, and March 17 and April 15, 1975, as well as letters received from him dated August 5 and November 9, 1974 and January 8 and March 1, 1975, is denied to you under 5 U.S.C. 552 (b) (6).

The specific records to which you refer in this request apparently are the following:

- (a) Pages 23-34 of Commission Document 651 relating to Yuri Nosenko. These pages were withheld from research in 1965 and 1970 at the request of the Department of Justice in its letters listed in item 4 above. They were declassified by the letter of January 24, 1975, of the Department also listed in item 4 above.
- (b) The letter of J. Lee Rankin to J. Edgar Hoover dated April 24, 1964. This letter was withheld from research by the National Archives in our 1967-68 review of the records because of the relevance of the letter to the investigation of Oswald's Mexican trip and the question of Mexican-American relations. The Department of Justice asked us to continue to withhold the records which included this letter in its letter of April 18, 1973 (item 2 above).

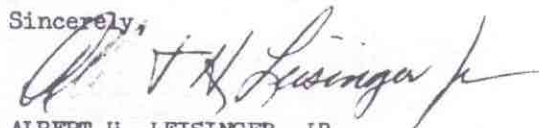

- (c) Transcript of an executive session of the Commission of January 22, 1964. A transcript was prepared by a Department of Defense stenotypist from the reporter's notes for that session and classified on the basis of the classification of the reporter's notes. A note of Marion M. Johnson (NARS) to Mark Grunwald (Department of Justice) of November 12, 1974, requesting a review of the transcript and the reply of the Department of February 26, 1975, will be furnished to you.
- (d) The undated Coleman-Slawson memorandum on Oswald's foreign activities. Most of this memorandum was declassified by the National Archives on the basis of published information. A letter of Charles E. Savage (CIA) to James B. Rhoads relating to declassification of a portion of the memorandum is denied to you under 5 U.S.C. 552 (b) (1).

Enclosed is a copy of the exemptions in 5 U.S.C. 552 (b) which include those cited in this letter. The copies of records we are furnishing you are being sent to you separately.

The CIA will respond to you separately concerning its security classified letters denied to you in this letter.

You may appeal the denials to you in this letter to the Deputy Archivist of the United States, National Archives and Records Service, Washington, DC 20408. Denials of security classified documents, which includes part of the deleted portions in the Coleman-Slawson memorandum on Oswald's foreign activities, may also be appealed to the Interagency Classification Review Committee, National Archives Building, Room 604, Washington, DC 20408.

Sincerely,

ALBERT H. LEISINGER, JR.
Acting Assistant Archivist
for the National Archives

Enclosures

(i) the need to search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request;

(ii) the need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request;
or

(iii) the need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more components of the agency having substantial subject-matter interest therein.

(C) Any person making a request to any agency for records under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of this subsection shall be deemed to have exhausted his administrative remedies with respect to such request if the agency fails to comply with the applicable time limit provisions of this paragraph. If the Government can show exceptional circumstances exist and that the agency is exercising due diligence in responding to the request, the court may retain jurisdiction and allow the agency additional time to complete its review of the records. Upon any determination by an agency to comply with a request for records, the records shall be made promptly available to such person making such request. Any notification of denial of any request for records under this subsection shall set forth the names and titles or positions of each person responsible for the denial of such request.

(b) This section does not apply to matters that are--

(1)(A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order;

(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;

(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute;

(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;

(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;

(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(7) investigatory records compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such records would (A) interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) disclose the identity of a confidential source and, in the case of a record compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, confidential information furnished only by the confidential source, (E) disclose investigative techniques and procedures, or (F) endanger the life or physical safety of law enforcement personnel;

(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or

(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

Any reasonably segregable portion of a record shall be provided to any person requesting such record after deletion of the portions which are exempt under this subsection.

(c) This section does not authorize withholding of information or limit the availability of records to the public, except as specifically stated in this section. This section is not authority to withhold information from Congress.

(d) On or before March 1 of each calendar year, each agency shall submit a report covering the preceding calendar year to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and President of the Senate for referral to the appropriate committees of the Congress. The report shall include--

(1) the number of determinations made by such agency not to comply with requests for records made to such agency under subsection (a) and the reasons for each such determination;
