X-rays Confirm Oswald Was Alone, Medic Says

was no doubt in his mind that the president was gunned down by a single assailant. The first private physician to see the long-withheld X-ray taken in the 1963 aurops; of President John F. Kennedy said yesterday there the Watten Contribation findings. ment of urology at Columbia University Colremoved previous reservations he had about conference his inspection of the autopsy data lege of Physicians and Surgeous, told a news Dr. John K. Lattimer, chalifful of the depart-

Kennedy on Nav. 27, 1963 Harve. Oswald fired all the shots that killed The Warren Commission concluded that Lie specialist given access to their since the Ken-netty family free-year bin on public examina-tion expired but October. The processors were deposited with the National-Archives in Friday in the National Arctives in Washingon, was the first medical medical Lattimer, who slewed he documents had purencies and black and white were fire He said he inspected 65 X-rays coope trans-ments showed that the initial bullet pussed. It know after my own experiments that Oswald Lattimer 57, who has become and wrater sketches released by the Warren Commissin. He said he reached that conclusion after inspecting X-rays and the suit, shirt and tie worm by the President when he was shot in a Dallas metorcade.

In the car, "he was still sixting upright and was highly viable," The first bullet would not have killed the President, Lattimer said. However, in the next live seconds, although Kennedy slumped over ŧ nullet and, "rough as it was, shertered his brain and part of his head terribly," Lattimer said. "The color photographs were "so devastating, I can understand why the Kennedy family would be reluctant to make them public," he The second and familibuliet was a military at timer said he had set up a rifle range at the Michigan form and had practiced rapid tab his two sum in order to displicate Chewnid's actions

"Both bullets come from belief and from the rear of the Warren Commission solo, and through the President's body at a distinctly downward angle, more than was shown in Some critics of the Warren Commission's sketches released by the Warren Commission findings have suggested that the second bullet he said he reached that conclusion after in was fired by another assailant facing the President's body at a distinctly was a perfectly competent marksman," he said downward angle, more than was shown in the said that the second bullet was fired by another assailant facing the President's body at a distinctly was a perfectly competent marksman," he said downward angle, more than was shown in the said that the second bullet was a perfectly competent marksman," he said downward angle, more than was shown in the said second bullet was a perfectly competent marksman," he said downward angle, more than was shown in the said second bullet was a perfectly competent marksman, was a perfectly competent marksman, was a perfectly competent was a perfectly competent marksman, was a perfectly competent was a dent's car.

V AZZ

1/11/11

doubt that the front and rear wounds in the slain President were caused by the same bullet which passed through Kennedy's body and then struck then-Texas Gov. John Connally who was riding in the President's car. Lattimer said the X-rays proved without a fired and missed the presidential car third bullet but that he believed one had been Lattimer said there was no evidence of a School and representative of the Kennedy family, said Lattimer was the first expert to request persintsion to view the documents when the moratorium ended last October. Burke Marshall, deputy dean of Yale Law to decide who will see the documents, said be was obsidering similar requests from three other physicians — Dr. Cyril H. Wecht of Pittsexaminer of Wayne County, Mich. bough; Tr. John Nichols of the University of Fansas, and Er E. Forrest Chapman medical Marshall, entrusted by the Kennedy family

Dr. John K. Lattimer shows where the bullet exited.