Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I am late in acknowledging your book and your letter. Life has been terribly hectic here the last weeks. I must say that I was impressed with the size of the work you have done and hope soon to take a look at it as well as to give it to Jack Smith who did most of the reports on the assassination and the Warren Commission report. Mark Lane's book will be coming out soon too and another book entitled, INQUEST by Edward Jay Epstein has arrived.

I am not sure how we will handle the books at this point, but I will let you know. I very much appreciate the trouble you have gone to in printing the book and I will investigate with our advertising people what we might be able to do with it. I rather doubt we could, at this point in the summer, undertake to sell it through the GUARDIAN.

Sincerely yours,

James Aronson
