

Dear Bill,

11/20/95

Your letter of the 17th ^{shipment} here today—along with the ~~shipment~~ of which Hale said it had no record! In which were the grapefruit spoons they apologized for not including! We do appreciate them, like them better from the past, and I'm sorry if the ~~Hale~~ confusion was in any way embarrassing to you.

Glad you had a good trip and that ⁶Florida is beginning to learn that conservation pays. As to the degree the pols permit ¹Maryland has. I think I told you about the recovery of the wild turkeys and that there is a flock near here. Almost extinct.

I've heard from the MacDonaldis. The woman who retyped the ~~beginning~~ chapters of ~~Inside~~ ^{Inside} ~~London~~ gave me a disk that is not, at its best, what she retyped to include my corrections. Much is missing and they've waste a considerable amount of time, as of course was ⁸wasted for me and again will be. Not today, I'm too tired but if you want I'll send you what Dennis sent me, here in today's mail. I'll write her and threaten her because I believe I can replevin her but I wonder if there is a criminal offense here, with it my property, with common-law copyright, etc.

The only thing I can think of is that someone in government heard what she was doing and got interested.

She is doing p.r. for an outfit I never heard of so I know nothing about their business but in DC it has to have some government connection. Lisboa Associates, 1317 F St, 20004-1105; 202/737-2622 if you have any ~~directory~~ directory of any such available. I know her work takes her to the Congress for she said to some time ago.

You are in the right business to get after KFC. Such things should never happen.

On Pepper's book, did I not send you the ^{did} memo I ~~did~~ on it? No good and less than honest. The work ^{did} ~~was~~ and I did on that case, which we took to the Supreme court, is not mentioned in it. Nor when he was here did he even look at those transcripts. ^{Neither} ~~Neither~~ did he when he had a student searching and copying for him. He has buried Ray deeper, and after ^{what have did small} ~~that~~ that was ~~put~~ ^{small} accomplishment.

In haste, again thanks, and best,

Farrell
