Dear Harold:

It appears someone has been fooling with my typewriter again!

Well, it appears that I am going to live and improve. We have just not felt well, Betsy has missed several days of work, but at least the rest of the family did not get it, except Dick.

It was real interesting, I showed Dick Waketh the Watchman, just to see the 4-4-67 FBI memo, and of course my foreword. He found the book so interesting that he read the whole thing. He is kind of a cynic anyway. When he was a young man, he was a real happy go lucky type, we are told. But in World War II, he had to kill a lot of people, real bad combat. He also liberated some of the Jewish concentration camps. So, he kind of has a bad attitude anyway towards big government.

I did find the enclosed about nuclear weapons. I cut it out a month ago, then misplaced it.

I have two questions. 1. How did you get the 4-4-67 FBI memo?

2. If in fact JFK was hit in the front of the neck and the bullet exited the back near the shoulder blade, should not the limo have had a bullet hole in the seat? Seatback?

I bought a copy of Newmans' Oswald and the CIA for $8. Also one with the always entertaining Marita Lorenz. I hate to spend any money on the bullshit books, but I guess I have to.

Saw a guy named Zeller on Tom Snyder last night, when I should have been sleeping. Used to work for the Teamsters. Said Hoffa had tapes of JFK and Marilyn Monroe. Yeah, I bet!

We are looking forward to 1997. Maybe Larry will walk better. He can hobble around on a cane, but old Weisberg is faster! So, young Larry better improve. He is an idiot not to get a second opinion. It appears to me that either he was misdiagnosed at the start, and perhaps had a mini stroke. Or, they just have not been aggressive in his therapy. I told him he better improve, so he can go get me a beer at Daytona!

Plus, he is now fatter than me. And as Lil will tell you, that's fat!

I just hope you and Lil have a great New Year. I will strive to write you the funniest letters, if not the most intellectual. Remember, THINK POSITIVE!

I am absolutely convinced that you have many more years left. To write and appear on about 10 more documentaries. I have had more fun writing to you over the years, so let's keep going!

The tractor business is going great. The Neichter family fortune in part depends on it, so go Caterpillar! They really are the best tractors. Guess they don't need me to sell them!

I bought a new Dodge van. Haven't even broken it in yet. White with a grey band around it. A big, short wheelbase van, bigger than Ginocchio's minivan. So I can tow a boat if I ever get to go on vacation. The only vacation I took last year was going to Frederick. Except for a few auto races. I had a great time in Frederick, you and Lil are so nice, and the Mc Knights. Fascinating story about Greg Stone. Sort of an unknown hero story. Too bad I never got to meet him. I do think this subject matter could be very hard on anyone, especially if they had a problem with depression.

Well, I better go. Take care and give McKnight one of these calendars if you have the chance. Take care.

Peace

Bill
