

Dear Bill,

6/24/97

If this seems hurried that is in part because I've been hurrying, for me now, anyway, in reading and correcting the retyping of Bogus Revelation, of the JFK Assassination, the book-length response I've made to Hermit Hall of the ARRB, to the stinking article he had in The Maryland Law Review. When I finished it I hoped it would be as close as is now possible for me to doing to the ARRB what Whitewash did to the Commission. With all the corrections to be made in the retyping I can't really evaluate impartially, but I am inclined to think that considering my limitations, it may be that. And I think nobody ^{else} will make the effort anyway.

That is both a fine story on Betsy and fine pictures of her. We are glad to see both and more, the recognition for her that it represents.

Glad you father is better ~~and~~ and that your brother is banging away for Habitat. The injured brother or a different one? Fine if the one who was hurt! Fine thing to do, too.

I think you project trying to cover too much in the subjects for the proposed speech on the JFK assassination.

By the time you've gotten through 7 on your outline you will have done as much as you can expect or that your audience will be able to hold.

Moreover, and I've less time because I have to leave for the garage soon to get the A/C fixed—with the forecast of 95 today and 97 for tomorrow—I'd be inclined to omit most of 10, all of 11, 12, 13 and 14 and leave those matters to questions from the audience. Do not cut what you go into too thin.

The press can also be handled in question responses.

What you project will be a hard dose and much info for the audience. Do not swamp it. Let the main points be clearer and grasped better.

Congrats to Betsy!

David
