

WILLIAM L. NEICHTER
ATTORNEY AT LAW
1313 LYNDON LANE
SUITE 115
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY 40222
(502) 429-0266

ans 7/8

July 8, 1997

Dear Harold:

Always set margins before writing!

Hope you are feeling stronger and better. I think it is tough to adapt to the first hot weather of the season. It bothers me, too!

I think I have the first epilogue to Waketh, but where it is is a mystery. I'll see if I can find it.

I must tell you, I really enjoy our correspondence. I think many people must have a brain, yet they keep it hidden. Thanks for being so nice to us.

I have never really understood what it is that you don't like about the ARRB. I know they do not seem to be going after the records you want, but I fail to completely understand your problem with them.

On the home front- Dad is much stronger and his appetite is improved. He ate 1/3 of my salad at lunch and a couple ribs. Ribs. But he can't walk very far.

We just had a new roof put on the house. Now poor but with a great looking roof!

Have yet to hear from my buddy at Legal Aid about doing a benefit JFK talk for them. I have half a mind to just rent a hall, do my own advertising, and have everyone bring a can of food for Dare to Care, our local food bank.

Frankly, I would like to make a demo tape of my speech and see if I can get on the college lecture circuit.

Last week, the Black Entertainment Network had a talk show on Dr. King's death, but it was preempted by talk of the cannibal Tyson. Tavis Smiley is the host. I called the show, tried to speak to a staffer, but spoke to "voice mail", a $50 word for answering machine. Told them they should contact you, Jim Lesar and maybe Jerry McKnight. Doubt they will. Show is I think in DC.

Otherwise, my writing has fallen off to nil. Sort of like my interest in my legal practice. I think I need a vacation. Going to Key West in November.

Hope you enjoy the enclosures and I will try to write later in the week.

Love,
Bill

