

Dear Bill,

3/27/98

You mentioned the size of Waketh and I forgot to tell you that it is, even larger: Just got the disks of the first epilogue, which was done the ~~last~~<sup>third</sup> week, completed that is, the third week of the Gingler era. I discontinued going that way with it and had no chance to get it retyped until finally, about a year ago, a friend volunteered her son or daughter. They squeezed it in and I just got the last corrections and the disks and I can't remember where I put where the corrections go. I want to check them before I send out what might be with errors in it. I've checked most of the obvious places and when I feel a little less tired and able to bend easier, I'll check the remaining places where it can be.

I think you all have the second epilogue, which Jerry volunteered to retype.

To update you(pl), I've returned to Clay, who is not known to any if you, Faking Kennedy: with Hersh-It Journalism, with a few final corrections. He <sup>isn't</sup> should be giving <sup>me</sup> the disks. I've also sent back to him <sup>my</sup> corrections in his retyping of what I wrote about Donahue/Menninger. I've not yet returned to him, with corrections made some time ago, his retyping of. golly, I now can't remember which manuscript that was! Wait Brown

I am going to face a real problem when the Posner pap on the King case is in the stores, my local Encore says it will be a month yet. Most of what I'll want to use ~~is~~ is in the basement,

My feeling is that he has taken the fictions of the House assassins as his own by interviewing those it interviewed and based on whom it made up its phony case. (If any Ray had gotten any of that phony loot Jimmy would never have been caught. He was about $100 shy of fare of then Rhodesia when he got to Portugal. Rhodesia had no extradition treaty with the US.)

Best
H
