Dear Harold:

I think you have found a diamond with Clay Ogilvie. He sent me some disks, I am sending him Waketh and related disks. He seems like a nice and sincere guy. Offered him copies of Presumed Guilty and documentary Reasonable Doubt.

Hope you are well. We are fine. We have reservations at Red Horse.

There is going to be released a digitally enhanced version of Zapruder film, goes all the way to sprockets. Comes out later this month.

Things are good, Betsy has been accepted in PHD program.

Fires in Florida too bad. Daytona and north is almost my hometown, have spent over a year of my life there on vacation. Still a lot like 50 years ago, north of Daytona. Florida is a lot like Africa, periodically fires burn it to the ground. Too bad if your home is in the way.

My writing has dried up, need to get it into gear. Have not heard from Don Wilson, though he has never written, only phoned. I'll know more when I go out to lunch with him, probably this fall. Works near Betsy's dad.

We hope to see you on July 24. We shall be there the whole weekend.

Looks like they may beat Roger Maris' record this year. A disgrace that Maris is not in the Hall of Fame. Ted Williams said they might get it, in one of his last TV appearances before a recent stroke.

Looks like Bud Selig is going to be commissioner. We have the Breweries farm team here in Louisville, formerly Cardinal's farm team. At least the Brewers moved to the National League.

You ought to be a Reds fan, no players, idiot owner, how the mighty have fallen.

Sort of a funny thing in paper this week. Statue in front of main Library is of a Know Nothing, ran Courier Journal in days of that party. He was anti German and Irish and Catholic, anti immigrant. In 1850's. Should they keep the statue?

Had an interesting experience this morning. Joe Arnold is the midnight -5am WHAS radio host. I called into his show a few months ago when he was discussing the JFK case. I then sent him Whitewash II and related materials. Never heard from him, though I know he is busy and is somewhat of an intellectual.

At the Kroger grocery near me, I heard on the radio that they were having a racecar display and Joe Arnold as a promo. After I signed up for the $100 drawing, I introduced myself. To make a point, or get to one, he wants to have you on his show in late July or August, with me in the studio. So, this is the question- what time do you get up? His show starts at midnight. Your part and mine would be around midnight to 1am, probably. Let me know.

It would be good to get you on a 50,000 watt station at night. During the day, it is heard in 3 or 4 states. At night, it can be heard in 38 states. When Larry was on at night on WHAS, he got calls from Delaware, Virginia, Florida and I think one time from Colorado. I swear to God, some former Kentuckians drive up into the mountains in Colorado at night, and aim the car at Louisville so they can hear Wildcat basketball games.

Plus, it will only be 11pm Chicago time, and 10 pm Mountain time. We are on East Coast time. We might sell some books.

I have picked up WHAS in Florida at night. It is one of the clearest channels in the South or Midwest, all of which it covers.

I send you some articles. Anytime a Democrat happens to get elected Prez, I end up defending him. Jimmy Carter owes me some serious money!

Anyway, Prof. Turley was on Cokie Roberts' show Sunday on ABC and made the following statement. "I don't think there is anyone in Washington that doesn't think that the President has committed perjury". Well, another former White House counsel strongly disagreed. so, My point is this- since when does a law prof. go around convicting the President without a hearing? Is this what we teach at the leading law schools anymore?

Let me know if you want to be on Arnold's show and what time you get up. I'll take it from there.

Bill
