

Dear Bill,

10/7/98

Weakest day I can remember. Right quadriped gave way yesterday as I was entering a van. Physical therapist gave me sensible exercise for it today but it left me tired. And I'm trying to get ahead on the ARRB Whitewash book. But, and thanks for the Posner apologia, if not what he earned that Beetle with, your 10/5 on the King's suing Towers is silly and <sup>a</sup> sure loser. What are they <sup>w</sup> saying him for? And what can his fake prove, or how can it do them any good? I'm not a lawyer but I think they'll do better when the government issues its newest whitewash to sue the DJ and I wonder if they can allege non-feasance, malfeasance and misfeasance. I would think that with what I have they could. So, if Clay has not yet sent you Whoring with History and if you have the time, get that printout and read it. There is more that is relevant that is not in it, too.

I do not recall whether I saw the Times' review of Webb's book but I did not finish reading that excellent book. Mostly because I live and work with too much unpleasantness so that in the little time I have for reading I prefer to ~~to~~ avoid more of what I live with and largely because I'm now a very slow reader and can't read as much.

Thanks and best,

Harold

I think there is a federal statute on failure to respond to official obligations or to meet official responsibilities, something like that.

If you are in touch with Clay, please tell him that I have not received the printout of Faking Kennedy printed in the usual way and on one side of the page. He told me some time ago that he had sent it.
