

In Arnold

But someone distanced by reports Nixon holding up well. "An accolade that he would not collapse" "It would be in human not to react to such a loss." Nixon has to be at least depressed.

NBC Today that segment 9/18/74

Nixon on not coming out of hospital alive

"Indication of a depressed state" but maybe of "mood of the moment" only.

Mental state can cause physical illness

LBJ "suffered a heart attack from frustration"

JFK "conditioned for the job" by father.

Nixon reacts to earlier defects" / was surprised at the absence of bitterness.

He "I don't think he really wanted it" (1692)
he was "persuaded into running against Brown."

Earlier he had started to say "I was opposed to it but shifted an immediately upon saying this (Promoting book "The Drive for Power")