

going after Nixon but
heavy on W.G. which
is what he expected,
but from see like he was being attacked &
saved him from the
also unanswerable
questions about the
economy, the cost of living, Russian M.D.K's
what has happened to the dollar & its value.

He looked as if he would not look worse.
He played the
country more & in
doing it, encourage his patriotism but some hard-core following that has no place to go &

had been seeking to
show it's own
self respect.

The odds are his
way in press on -
because nobody
has a chance to go
back & say "you
did not answer."

He used this me
anipulation to send
his opponent
choosing all his
lies in all directions,
which really got
down to a way.
