

The Rev. Sun Myung Moon is greeted by followers as he arrives at Dulles Airport after tour of nation.

Controversy Ruffles Prayer Breakfast 1/31/74

By Marjorie Hyer Washington Post Staff Writer

and William R. MacKaye Some 2,000 youthful followers of the Rev. Sun Myung Moon are expected to ring the Washington Hilton hotel this morning during the annual Presidential Prayer Breakfast, apparently frustrating efforts by the sponsors to depoliticize this year's breakfast.

Mr. Moon himself, who has emerged in recent weeks as one of the staunchest defendturned to Washington yesterday from his current evangelistic campaign in order to attend the breakfast. His campaign embodies the slogan "Forgive, Love, Unite."

volved in the House and Senate prayer groups, which sponsor the breakfast, have expressed dismay that the Ko-pool, both the writing press range of the television camrean clergyman was included and television cameras have eras and armed with banners fast. in the guest list.

ago, the committee had agreed the lost devotional nature of port of the President just as ance," said the former civil that an invitation was not go- the gathering," said John Ra- he concluded his remarks. ing to be extended to Mr. inbolt, assistant counsel to the Later that night, while they Church of Christ clergyman.

Rep. Graham Purcell.

Neither he nor other com-spokesmen of the Unification President Nixon left or by whom.

ment as well as the diplomatic Watergate Crisis. community

Mark O. Hatfield (R-Ore.), the committee, who asked not ers assembled at Dulles Interspeaking for ers of President Nixon, re-Prayer Group, issued a sting- antee he will not be at the him as he arrived from Los ing warning that such gather- head table." ings constituted more civil re-

Congressmen and others in ning committee sought ways ability to capture media attento restore the event to its orig- tion last month at the lighting inal purpose.

Except for a White House been excluded from the break- and placards, they staged a "As of two or three weeks fast this year "to help restore noisy demonstration in sup-forgiveness without repentmittee members queried could Church, as Mr. Moon's organi- White House to thank them say yesterday how that deci- zation is known, issued a press personally for their support sion had been countermanded release announcing their lead- and to give them a presidener's invitation to the breakfast tial Christmas card. The annual breakfast has and their plans to field 2,000 come to be a major social demonstrators outside the ho- throng stopped traffic momenevent attended by top figures tel in support of their Na- tarily on Pennsylvani Avenue from all branches of govern-tional Prayer and Fast for the to escort him back to the

Mr. Moon is not scheduled At last year's affair, Sen. to speak and one member of of Mr. Moon's cheering follow-Senate to be identified, said, "I guar- national Airport to welcome

The Unification Church repligion than authentic worship of God and as such, verged on that their "Forgive, Love, "outright idolatry." unite" campaign is "not politiday's breakfast but who has As a result, this year's plan-cal but spirtial," proved their

| Moon," said former Texas House Agriculture Committee, were gathered in Lafayette Earlier this week, press Park singing Christmas carols,

> The -singing, White House.

Last night more than 1,500 Angeles.

Rep. Andrew Young (D-Ga.), consented to offer a concluding prayer, was among those who expressed dismay over of the National Christmas tree. the plans of the Unification Strategically seated in easy Church people to link their campaign to the prayer break-

> "I've always said there is no rights leader, who is a United