Nixon Continues Work On Watergate Rebuttal

Camp David yesterday, accom- ent plans are carried out, panied by his principal speech aides say he will hold his first writer, to continue work on 15. the response he plans to make next week to Watergate charges.

-Raymond K. Price, who accruise down the Potomac hearings. Tuesday night, flew with him to Camp David yesterday for an indefinite stay.

While official spokesmen have declined to say exactly when the President will speak, it was indicated that he is planning to address the nation by the middle of next week.

According to present intentime an extensive white paper giving detailed replies to the Senate Watergate hearings.

While Mr. Nixon and Price are concentrating on the television address, White House lawyers are working on a dogument to be released concur-rently with the speech or The President retu shortly thereafter.

television address, Mr. Nixon after met for almost two hours is expected to fly to San Cle- with Vice President Agnew. mente, Calif., probably remaining there until after La-

President Nixon returned to, While in California, if presnews conference since March

There had been reports that Mr. Nixon would like to make his speech promptly after the Senate Watergate investigatcompanied Mr. Nixon on a ing committee suspended its

But White House officials have said that the President could not prepare a full reply until the hearings were ended Tuesday, and that more time is required by the lawyers in preparing/a documented rebuttal to the many charges made during the hearings.

For almost the first time. tions, he will issue at the same White House aides acknowledge that the President is spending a vast amount of charges made against him in time on Watergate and on his response to the charges leveled against him.

He spent last weekend at Camp David working alone, then drove back to the mountain retreat Monday afternoon

The President returned to the White House Tuesday Within a few days after the morning and shortly there-

Mrs. Nixon and their daughter Tricia Cox are also at Camp David.