Culling of Nixon Papers Reported

Washington

The pre-presidential papers for which President Nixon claimed a $576,000 tax reduction were culled to eliminate "sensitive" documents, even though Mr. Nixon turned the papers over to the National Archives with the specification that no unauthorized person could see them until after he left. The White House.

According to testimony given to the Congressional Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation, the items that were removed from the 1176 boxes of donated papers included "sensitive files respecting J. Edgar Hoover, Jacqueline Kennedy and the Vietnam war."

An inventory of the "pre-presidential papers located in President Nixon's vault at the National Archives" has been turned over to the joint committee and a copy has been obtained by the New York Times.

The inventory, which covers both the papers given to the archives and these retained by Mr. Nixon, shows that the donated items include thousands of newspaper clippings and some un-clipped newspapers: 229 boxes of invitations to Mr. Nixon to attend social events or to give appeaches, along with carbons of his replies and thousands of items of correspondence.

A few items of clear historical interest were included, such as the briefing materials that were prepared for Mr. Nixon before his trips abroad as vice president.

The Associated Press reported on Friday that the staff of the joint semmittee had found that the demanded at papers were sveryahised at $57% off). The appended was made by Maiph (i. Newstann of bicage, a professional approximation).

I have of interest not included in the gift, or in an elaster one made in 1968, inc. c. ded "Correspondence With Family" during the vear that Mr. Ninon was fice position, and a five-inchesick file of "Corponchesick file of "Corponchesic Mir. With and the controversity position of the controversity position."

The propinging pa

on also include a file dated 1965-68 and titled "Miscellaneous Correspondence on Recent Issues and Individual a is. Principally Dealing With Robert Kennedy and the 1968 Campaign." File dealing with the election of Mr. Nixon's 1968 running mate, Spiro T. Agnew, and a 40-inch-thick folder date dise and headed "Responses to a National Poll of Republicans on the Question of Nixon Running for Governor of California" are also still ewned by Mr. Nixon, along with hundreds of others.
