

SF Chronicle 10/19/73
Nixon Property
Appraisal Plan

SF
Chronicle

10/19/73

The plan was collected in provisions in a draft agreement offered to the courts.
But Brennan said would even if the appraisal plan were to be adopted it would not be binding on the courts. Brennan said the plan would be binding on the courts only if it were approved by the courts. Brennan said the plan would be binding on the courts only if it were approved by the courts.
Brennan said the plan
would be binding on the courts only if it were
approved by the courts.
Brennan said the plan
would be binding on the
courts only if it were
approved by the courts.

The plan would be binding on the courts only if it were approved by the courts. Brennan said the plan would be binding on the courts only if it were approved by the courts.