Nixon's Paris Politicking

Paris

French officials are resentful that President Nixon went politicking in Paris while President Georges Pompidou was still fresh in lis grave.

There has been no official comment or protest.

"But this does not mean that we were necessarily pleased with Nixon's behavfor here," one official source said.

The state-owned television system and pro-government newspapers noted critically that Mr. Nixon met with six world leaders here while France had only an interim president in office.

Mr. Nixon attended a 55-minute memorial service for Pompidou here last Saturday and met with acting President Alain Poher for another 45 minutes. Then he spent a total of seven hours conferring with the leaders of the Soviet Union, Japan, West Germany, Britain, Denmark and Italy:

"The spectacle of Mr. Nixon holding court in Paris and receiving ... the homage of certain of his European vassals is just a big show . . ." Le Figaro said yesterday.

sion after Mr. Nixon re-shaking hands with a crowd burned to Washington on just a few hundred yards Sanday said: "Political cir-from the Elysee Palace, Le cles are perhaps relieved Monde noted. that Nixon has left after turning Paris into a capital grave classimatances of his of world politics."

"This show was judged in that a British newspaper political circles to be a su-preme lack of tact." It add this is a great day for ed. France" shortly after the memorial service. Mr. Nixon A pornmentary on televi- had been enthusiastically

Had has forgotten the visit to Patis, or had he -Le Monde noted scathingly wittingly or unwittingly - betraved his real thoughts?" Le Monde commented.

"Did he want to publicize his hope that France, after the death of President Pompidou, would docilely reenter the Atlantic fold? Or did he want to thank Pompidou for allowing him - in these circumstances — to meet so many political partners in such a short time?" Le Monde added.

Associated Press