

Compromise on Nixon Trio

LONDON — The offer of a compromise deal to the Nixon Trio, the three top advisers to President Richard M. Nixon, was made today with a view to ending the present deadlock over the proposed European Community (EC) free trade area with the United States. The offer, which is being discussed in detail by the Nixon Trio and the EC, is expected to be finalized in the next few days. The offer is seen as a significant step towards resolving the long-standing dispute between the United States and the EC over the proposed free trade area.
