

To Mr 95

Dear Howell,

When I first ~~started~~ ^{started} writing

Howell you and her sister

what read the Howell men's first half was right on Reuel.

The second half seems to have gone
a long on matter/History issue.

I will buy a copy of Reuel ~~and~~

draft with me

I spoke to Bell weeks on Re

phone. He appears concerned over Howell's legacy. He needs to talk with you to make sure that it is legally binding in every land.

He's afraid that your papers and

I don't know!!

Merry Christmas, anyway records. Also I suppose Re

is my idea to form an institute

"Howell Society, Institute for SER

+ more legacy Studies? Seminar

they try all your records,

then many on to Teachers;

holding, Solobly, Synprose and eventually supporting original records. All his and supporting new Teachers Curricula.

See you in a mail.

Hope, let's stay well. Day O.

Let's say our friendship is a Christmas tree.

And let's say the lights
are all the smiles we've shared.

And let's say the ornaments
are all the memories we cherish.

And let's say the tinsel is the warmth we hold in our hearts
for each other.

Now, if a light burns out,
does that mean we lose a smile?

Of course not!

And if an ornament breaks,
does that mean we lose a memory?!

Nonsense!

And should the tinsel fall off
the branches and be vacuumed up,
does that mean our hearts turn cold?!

Never!

So what's my point?!
