

Dear John,

11/30/94

Herewith Hamilton catalogues. Ignore the markings. They were to call attention to those books by my wife.

What ^{you} sent me from Reibling's book is very worthwhile but not for the reason I'd ^{helped} ~~help~~. He is a staunch apologist for the official mythology. I've read those pages, do not want to take the time to read the whole thing because I'll do better to keep writing, but if I can find someone to do the transcribing I may dictate a long memo on it. For the record, whether or not I do that, if it is not too much trouble I'll be helped and will appreciate if it you would please send me, for identification with these pages, a copy of the title page, the table of contents, and those he identifies as having helped him. ^{or credits} He had some solid research done for him and he was dishonest as hell in using it or the researcher(s) angled it to influence how he would understand and use it.

I'm glad you included his biblio. He makes it clear he did not consult the works of real criticism, with meaningful data, and I think in that and in his writing he comes close to disclosing that he writes from the right and not from any impartiality.

Again many thanks. it is quite informative and worthwhile. I've already annotated it to a degree and am thinking seriously of doing a longer analysis for history.

Best wishes,

Hand

Harold,

I'm sending you copies of assassination (+ related) stuff from Reibling's book.

So far, I've only been able to get Reibling's publisher's address. I know he lives in FL. & I'll try to track him down, but in the meantime Reibling can be contacted:
