Thanks for the stories on Johnny's ^{trial} ~~case~~. I knew the outcome because Carol called me that night but not the details in those stories.

Jerry was supposed to send me stories, including one that billed him as star witness, but I've heard nothing from him.

Nothing new here. Except Spring, as usual, beautiful.

Wish some of those bedding plants you are selling were closer. I'd probably want them everywhere, despite our inability to keep up with what we have.

Again, thanks.

Harold -

I thought I'd mail you a copy of all of these clippings on John's trial.

Susan and I went up there. The court heard me without the jury but to no avail.

I'll be in touch.

Very busy this month selling bedding plants. Weather beautiful.

I hope you all are healthy.
