Dear David Pearlutter,

Thanks for the interesting dope on "None of Your Business."

It has not been possible to print Post Mortem, all three parts of which are camera-ready. No money. Cost about $20,000, that big.

Gordon is not aired around here so I can't see the show.

I know about it. Groden is a friend. I've tried to help him as much as possible before each show.

He is fine in photo-optics but knows little about the hard fact of the assassination. Much of what he says is so far out it is absolutely irrational.

But he is off and running, enjoys the attention, and says whatever pops into his mind.

You will see the great harm of all of this when the Rockefeller Report comes out.

And, of course, it denies attention to solid work.

While undermining all credibility where it now counts, with the Congress.

I'm sorry it is this way.

Sorrier still that this is far from an isolated case.

There is nobody who has done any real work, either ever or for nine years, who is not getting any media attention. They are all easily rebutted, none really know what they are talking about, so the potential ought be clear.

When they don't have to be concerned with fact they can be quite exciting.

But among the results is the deception of genuinely concerned people.

Sincerely,
