

FOUR ARE HELD ON MORALS CHARGES

Four persons were being held Thursday on morals charges following their arrest Wednesday by members of the headquarters special (vice) squad.

Booked at the First District station were Maureen Hagney, 18, 4609 Painters; Orest Pena, 39, 117 Decatur; Sandra Mae Edwards, 34, Phoenix, Ariz., and Harry Long, 40, 323 Lafayette, Gretna.

OCT 1 2 1962
Pena and Miss Hagney were arrested at the Habana Bar, 117 Decatur, at 7 p. m. He was booked with employing a prostitute in an establishment serving alcoholic beverages. She was booked with vagrancy pending investigation of commercialized prostitution.

Miss Edwards, arrested at 9:45 p. m. from a central business district hotel, was booked with offering to commit prostitution with a vice squad undercover man.

Long was arrested from his residence at 5 p. m. with the aid of Gretna police. He was booked with soliciting for prostitution, pandering and enticing minors into prostitution. Police said he also was being held for the federal bureau of investigation because of possible violation of the Mann Act.
