To Jim Garrison from Harold Weisberg 3/17/68
Translator, etc.

Bhould you need help ink translations in interviewing witnesses, etc., early this morning I met a Jewish woman who was bern in Merecce who is fluent in seven languages and who is very much your partisan. Because of the din in thebar, I did not get her name. However, she can be reached through Orest Pena, who introduced us. Her languages include French, Spanish, Arabic and Hebrew.

Should any writing need stanslation, she can and said she will de this nights, after she finishes her regular work.
